Dear Ms. Janssen:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 403092.

The Austin Independent School District (the "district") received a request for a specified case file involving the requestor. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses section 261.201(a) of the Family Code, which provides as follows:

(a) Except as provided by Section 261.203, the following information is confidential, is not subject to public release under chapter 552, Government Code, and may be disclosed only for purposes consistent with this code and applicable federal or state law or under rules adopted by an investigating agency:

(1) a report of alleged or suspected abuse or neglect made under this chapter and the identity of the person making the report.

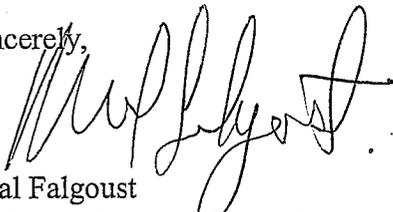

(2) except as otherwise provided in this section, the files, reports, records, communications, audiotapes, videotapes, and working papers used or developed in an investigation under this chapter or in providing services as a result of an investigation.

Fam. Code § 261.201(a). You seek to withhold the submitted information in its entirety under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 261.201 of the Family Code. We note the district is not an agency authorized to conduct a chapter 261 investigation. See id. § 261.103 (listing agencies that may conduct child abuse investigations). However, you state the submitted information pertains to an investigation of an alleged injury to a child conducted by the district's police department. See id. § 261.001(1) (defining "abuse" for purposes of Fam. Code ch. 261), Penal Code § 22.04(c) (defining "child" for purposes of injury to a child as a person 14 years of age or younger). Upon review, we find the submitted information is within the scope of section 261.201 of the Family Code. You have not indicated the district's police department has adopted a rule governing the release of this type of information. Accordingly, we assume no such rule exists. Given that assumption, the submitted information is confidential under section 261.201 of the Family Code and must be withheld under section 552.101 of the Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.oag.state.tx.us/open/index_orl.php, or call the Office of the Attorney General's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Sincerely,

Neal Falgoust
