Dear Ms. Benton:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 409683 (Waco Reference # LGL-10-1726).

The Waco Police Department (the "department") received a request for information pertaining to a specified automobile accident. You indicate the department has released some of the responsive information. You claim that portions of the submitted information are excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

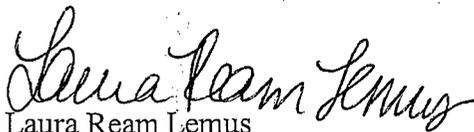

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision," and encompasses information made confidential by other statutes. Gov't Code § 552.101. You have highlighted a telephone number in the submitted computer aided dispatch ("CAD") record that you seek to withhold under section 552.101 in conjunction with section 772.318 of the Health and Safety Code. In addition, we have marked an address that may be subject to section 773.318. Chapter 772 of the Health and Safety Code relates to local emergency communications districts. Section 772.318 applies to an emergency 9-1-1 district established in accordance with chapter 772, and makes confidential the originating telephone numbers and addresses of 9-1-1 callers that are furnished by a service supplier. See Open Records Decision No. 649 (1996). The City of Waco is part of an emergency communication district that was established under section 772.318.¹ Provided that the information you have highlighted and we have marked consists of an originating telephone number and address furnished by a 9-1-1 service supplier, we conclude that the department must withhold that information under section 552.101 in conjunction with section 772.318 of the Health and Safety Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
