

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

January 5, 2011

Ms. T. Trisha Dang
Assistant City Attorney
City of Corpus Christi
P.O. Box 9277
Corpus Christi, Texas 78469

OR2011-00290

Dear Ms. Dang:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 405368.

The Corpus Christi Police Department (the "department") received three requests for the report pertaining to a specified incident. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses information protected by other statutes, such as section 261.201 of the Family Code. Section 261.201 provides in part:

(a) Except as provided by Section 261.203, the following information is confidential, is not subject to public release under Chapter 552, Government Code, and may be disclosed only for purposes consistent with this code and applicable federal or state law or under rules adopted by an investigating agency:

(1) a report of alleged or suspected abuse or neglect made under this chapter and the identity of the person making the report; and

(2) except as otherwise provided in this section, the files, reports, records, communications, audiotapes, videotapes, and working papers used or developed in an investigation under this chapter or in providing services as a result of an investigation.

(k) Notwithstanding Subsection (a), an investigating agency, other than the [Texas Department of Family and Protective Services] or the Texas Youth Commission, on request, shall provide to the parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative of a child who is the subject of reported abuse or neglect, or to the child if the child is at least 18 years of age, information concerning the reported abuse or neglect that would otherwise be confidential under this section. The investigating agency shall withhold information under this subsection if the parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative of the child requesting the information is alleged to have committed the abuse or neglect.

(l) Before a child or a parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative of a child may inspect or copy a record or file concerning the child under Subsection (k), the custodian of the record or file must redact:

(2) any information that is excepted from required disclosure under [the Act], or other law; and

(3) the identity of the person who made the report.

Fam. Code § 261.201(a), (k), (l)(2), (l)(3). You represent the submitted report was used or developed in an investigation by the department of alleged child abuse. See id. § 261.001(1)(E) (definition of "child abuse" for purposes of chapter 261 includes aggravated sexual assault under Penal Code section 22.021); see also Penal Code § 22.011(c)(1) (defining "child" for purposes of section 22.021 as "person younger than 17 years of age"). Thus, this report is subject to section 261.201(a). You do not indicate the department has adopted a rule governing the release of this type of information, and we assume no such rule exists. Therefore, the department must withhold the submitted information in its entirety from two of the requestors under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 261.201 of the Family Code.

However, the remaining requestor identifies herself as the mother of the child victim, and is not alleged to have committed the suspected abuse. Accordingly, the department may not withhold the submitted information from this requestor on the basis of section 261.201(a).

See Fam. Code § 261.201(k). Section 261.201(1)(2) states, however, that any information excepted from required disclosure under the Act or other law may still be withheld from disclosure. Id. § 261.201(1)(2). Thus, because you also raise section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code, we will address this argument for the submitted report.

Section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure “[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime . . . if . . . release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime.” Gov’t Code § 552.108(a)(1). A governmental body claiming section 552.108 must reasonably explain how and why the release of the requested information would interfere with law enforcement. See id. §§ 552.108(a)(1), .301(e)(1)(A); see also Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977). You state the submitted report is related to an active criminal investigation or prosecution. Based on this representation and our review, we determine release of the report at this time would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. See Houston Chronicle Publ’g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975) (court delineates law enforcement interests that are present in active cases), writ ref’d n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976). Thus, section 552.108(a)(1) is applicable to the submitted information.

However, section 552.108 does not except from disclosure basic information about an arrested person, an arrest, or a crime. Gov’t Code § 552.108(c). Basic information refers to the information held to be public in Houston Chronicle. See Houston Chronicle, 531 S.W.2d at 186-88; see also Open Records Decision No. 127 at 3-4 (1976) (summarizing types of information deemed public by Houston Chronicle). Thus, with the exception of basic information that must be released to the child victim’s mother, the department may withhold the report from her under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.

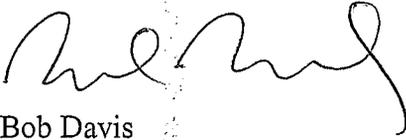

In summary, with the exception of basic information, the department may withhold the submitted report from the child victim’s mother under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code. Basic information must be released to the child victim’s mother. The department must withhold the submitted information from the other two requestors in its entirety under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 261.201 of the Family Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
