OR2011-01150

Dear Ms. Wetherbee:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 406832.

The City of Plano (the "city") received a request for an electronic list of twenty-four categories of information related to class C misdemeanor violations and warrants to be provided on a daily basis with ongoing updates regarding status changes to the information. You state the requested information is not subject to the Act. We have considered your arguments and reviewed the submitted information.

Initially, we note the requestor seeks information to be provided on a daily basis. It is implicit in several provisions of the Act that the Act applies only to information already in existence. See Gov't Code §§ 552.002, .021, .227, .351. The Act does not require a governmental body to prepare new information in response to a request. See Attorney General Opinion H-90 (1973); see also Open Records Decision Nos. 572 at 1 (1990), 555 at 1-2 (1990), 452 at 2-3 (1986), 87 (1975). Consequently, a governmental body is not required to comply with a standing request to supply information on a periodic basis as such information is prepared in the future. See Attorney General Opinion JM-48 at 2 (1983); see also Open Records Decision Nos. 476 at 1 (1987), 465 at 1 (1987). Thus, the city need not comply with the request to provide information on a daily basis.

Next, you state that the Municipal Court Office (the "court") creates an electronic list that contains a portion of the requested information. You explain that the court is part of the judicial branch. The Act only applies to information that is "collected, assembled, or maintained under a law or ordinance or in connection with the transaction of official business by a governmental body." Gov't Code § 552.002(a)(1). The Act does not apply to records of the judiciary. See id. § 552.003(1)(B) (definition of “governmental body” under Act specifically excludes the judiciary). Information that is “collected, assembled, or maintained by or for the judiciary” is not subject to the Act. Id. § 552.0035(a); see also Tex. Sup. Ct. R. 12. Consequently, records of the judiciary need not be released under the Act. See Attorney General Opinion DM-166 (1992). Thus, we agree this information is not subject to the Act and need not be released in response to this request for information.¹

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.oag.state.tx.us/open/index_orl.php, or call the Office of the Attorney General’s Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Act must be directed to the Cost Rules Administrator of the Office of the Attorney General, toll free at (888) 672-6787.

Sincerely,

Andrea L. Caldwell
Assistant Attorney General
Open Records Division
