Dear Ms. Middlebrooks:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 406871 (PIR No. 2010-10186).

The Dallas Police Department (the "department") received a request for information relating to a specified incident. You claim the requested information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.107, 552.108, 552.111, 552.117, 552.1175, 552.127, 552.130, and 552.136 of the Government Code.

Section 552.301 of the Government Code prescribes procedures a governmental body must follow in asking this office to determine whether requested information is excepted from public disclosure. See Gov't Code § 552.301(a). Section 552.301(e) requires the governmental body to submit to this office, no later than the fifteenth business day after the date of its receipt of the request for information, (1) written comments in support of the governmental body's claimed exceptions to disclosure and (2) the specific information at issue or representative samples if the information is voluminous. See id. § 552.301(e)(1)(A), (D). You state the department received the instant request for information on November 2, 2010. As of the date of this decision, you have not submitted either any arguments in support of the exceptions the department claims or any information the department seeks to withhold. Thus, the department has not complied with section 552.301 of the Government Code in requesting this decision.

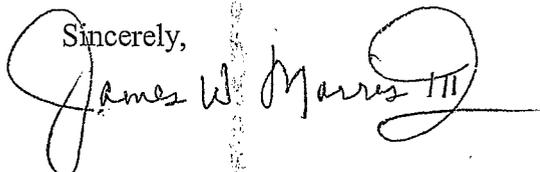

If a governmental body fails to comply with section 552.301, the requested information is presumed to be public and must be released, unless there is a compelling reason to withhold any of the information. See id. § 552.302; Simmons v. Kuzmich, 166 S.W.3d 342, 350 (Tex. App.—Fort Worth 2005, no pet.); Hancock v. State Bd. of Ins., 797 S.W.2d 379, 381-82 (Tex. App.—Austin 1990, no writ). This statutory presumption can generally be overcome when information is confidential by law or third-party interests are at stake. See Open Records Decision Nos. 630 at 3 (1994), 325 at 2 (1982). The department's discretionary exceptions to disclosure are not compelling reasons for non-disclosure under section 552.302. See Open Records Decision No. 665 at 2 n.5 (2000) (discretionary exceptions generally). In failing to comply with section 552.301, the department has waived its discretionary exceptions and may not withhold any of the requested information under any of those exceptions. See Open Records Decision No. 663 at 5 (1999) (waiver of discretionary exceptions). The department also claims mandatory exceptions to disclosure. See Open Records Decision No. 674 at 3 n.4 (2001) (mandatory exceptions generally). But because the department has not submitted any of the requested information to this office, we have no basis to conclude any of the information is confidential under any mandatory exception. Thus, we have no choice but to order the department to release the requested information in accordance with section 552.302 of the Government Code. If you believe the information is confidential and may not lawfully be released, you must challenge this ruling in court pursuant to section 552.324 of the Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. Sincerely,

James W. Morris, III
