Mr. Mark G. Mann
Assistant City Attorney
City of Garland
P.O. Box 469002

OR2011-03028

Dear Mr. Garland:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 410927 (GCA 10-01004).

The Garland Police Department (the "department") received a request for four specified police reports. You state the department has released two of the reports and a redacted version of a third report. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This section encompasses information protected by other statutes. The relevant language of section 58.007(c) of the Family Code reads as follows:

(c) Except as provided by Subsection (d), law enforcement records and files concerning a child and information stored, by electronic means or otherwise, concerning the child from which a record or file could be generated may not be disclosed to the public and shall be:

(1) if maintained on paper or microfilm, kept separate from adult files and records;

(2) if maintained electronically in the same computer system as records or files relating to adults, be accessible under controls that are separate and distinct from controls to access electronic data concerning adults; and

(3) maintained on a local basis only and not sent to a central state or federal depository, except as provided by Subchapters B, D, and E.

Fam. Code § 58.007(c); see id. § 51.03(a)–(b) (defining “delinquent conduct” and “conduct indicating need for supervision” for purposes of title 3 of Family Code). Section 58.007(c) is applicable to records of juvenile conduct that occurred on or after September 1, 1997. The juvenile must have been at least 10 years old and less than 17 years of age when the conduct occurred. See id. § 51.02(2) (defining “child” for purposes of title 3 of Family Code). Upon review, we agree report no. 2010R026591 consists of law enforcement records involving juvenile suspects. It does not appear any of the exceptions in section 58.007 apply; therefore, report no. 2010R026591 is confidential pursuant to section 58.007(c) of the Family Code. The department must withhold report no. 2010R026591 in its entirety from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 58.007 of the Family Code.<sup>1</sup>

Section 552.108(a) excepts from disclosure “[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime . . . if: (1) release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime.” Gov’t Code § 552.108(a)(1). Generally, a governmental body claiming section 552.108 must reasonably explain how and why release of the requested information would interfere with law enforcement. See Gov’t Code §§ 552.108(a)(1), (b)(1), .301(e)(1)(a); see also Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977). You state the information you have marked in report no. 2010R026590 relates to a pending criminal investigation. Based upon this representation, we conclude release of the information you have marked in report no. 2010R026590 would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. See Houston Chronicle Publ’g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975) (court delineates law enforcement interests that are present in active cases), writ ref’d n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976). Thus, we find the department may withhold the information you have marked in report no. 2010R026590 under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.

In summary, the department must withhold report no. 2010R026591 in its entirety from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 58.007 of the Family Code. The department may withhold the information you have
