Re: Request for all witness statements relating to the disorderly conduct charge the named individual will stand trial for, statements must be from all teachers, administrators, and named individuals, etc., 2010-11-323

Dear Ms. Kaminsky:

The Office of the Attorney General has received your request for a ruling and assigned your request ID# 415701.

After reviewing your arguments and the submitted information, we have determined your request does not present a novel or complex issue. Thus, we are addressing your claims in a memorandum opinion. You claim the submitted witness statements may be withheld from the requestor pursuant to section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code. We have considered your arguments and the submitted information and have determined that in accordance with section 552.108(a)(1) you may withhold the submitted witness statements. To the extent it exists, we assume you have released the rest of the requested information. See Gov't Code §§ 552.301, .302.

For more information on the cited exception, as well as information on the rights and obligations of governmental bodies and requestors, please refer to open government information contained on the Office of the Attorney General website at www.oag.state.tx.us. You may also contact our Open Government Hotline at 1-877-OPENTEX.
