Re: Request for information regarding the analysis results of the fuel sample taken from the named location; to include name, address, etc., of the contractor who gathered the fuel sample

Dear Mr. Wayland:

The Office of the Attorney General has received your request for a ruling and assigned your request ID# 420131.

After reviewing your arguments and the submitted information, we have determined your request does not present a novel or complex issue. Thus, we are addressing your claims in a memorandum opinion. You claim the submitted information may be withheld from the requestor pursuant to section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code. We have considered your arguments and the submitted information and have determined that in accordance with section 552.108(a)(1) you may withhold the submitted information. To the extent information responsive to the request regarding costs exist, we assume you have released it as you have not submitted it to this office. See Gov't Code §§ 552.301, .302.

For more information on the cited exception, as well as information on the rights and obligations of governmental bodies and requestors, please refer to open government information contained on the Office of the Attorney General website at www.oag.state.tx.us.
