

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

April 18, 2011

Mr. Kenneth W. Findley
Assistant Chief of Police
City of Deer Park
2911 Center Street
Deer Park, Texas 77536-4942

OR2011-05363

Dear Mr. Findley:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 414741 (Request # 17 - February 2011).

The Deer Park Police Department (the "department") received a request for a specified incident report. You claim that the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses information that other statutes make confidential. Section 261.201(a) of the Family Code provides:

(a) Except as provided by Section 261.203, the following information is confidential, is not subject to public release under Chapter 552, Government Code, and may be disclosed only for purposes consistent with this code and applicable federal or state law or under rules adopted by an investigating agency:

- (1) a report of alleged or suspected abuse or neglect made under this chapter and the identity of the person making the report; and
- (2) except as otherwise provided in this section, the files, reports, records, communications, audiotapes, videotapes, and working papers used or developed in an investigation under this chapter or in providing services as a result of an investigation.

Fam. Code § 261.201(a). We agree that the submitted information was used or developed in an investigation of alleged or suspected child abuse or neglect under chapter 261 of the Family Code, so as to fall within the scope of section 261.201(a). See id. § 261.001(1), (4) (defining “abuse” and “neglect” for purposes of Fam. Code ch. 261). We therefore conclude that the information at issue is confidential under section 261.201(a). We note the requestor seeks access to this information on behalf of the United States Consumer Product Safety Commission. Section 261.201 provides that information encompassed by subsection (a) may only be released to certain persons and entities under limited circumstances. See id. § 261.201(a). The requestor has not demonstrated that she falls within any category of persons or entities that is authorized to obtain information that section 261.201(a) makes confidential. See id. § 261.201(b)-(g) (listing entities that are authorized to receive information made confidential by Fam. Code § 261.201(a)); cf. Attorney General Opinion DM-353 at 4 n.6 (1995) (interagency transfer of information prohibited where confidentiality statute enumerates specific entities to which release of information is authorized, and where potential receiving governmental body is not among statute’s enumerated entities). Therefore, the department must withhold the submitted information in its entirety under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 261.201(a) of the Family Code. See Open Records Decision No. 440 at 2 (1986) (addressing predecessor statute).

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. Sincerely,

Nneka Kanu
