

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

May 17, 2011

Mr. Carey E. Smith
General Counsel
Texas Health and Human Services Commission
P.O. Box 13247
Austin, Texas 78711

OR2011-06940

Dear Mr. Smith:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 417830 (Commission OR-20110303-5774 and OR-20110316-5809).

The Texas Health and Human Services Commission (the "commission") received requests from two requestors for a list of individual purchases using Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program ("SNAP") food benefits in Webb County during a specified time period.¹ You claim that the requested information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted representative sample of information.²

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses information protected by other statutes, such ¹You state, and providing supporting documentation demonstrating, one of the requestors subsequently withdrew his request for information.

²This letter ruling assumes that the submitted representative sample of information is truly representative of the requested information as a whole. This ruling does not reach, and therefore does not authorize, the withholding of any other requested information to the extent that the other information is substantially different than that submitted to this office. See Gov't Code §§ 552.301(e)(1)(D), .302; Open Records Decision Nos. 499 at 6 (1988), 497 at 4 (1988).

as sections 12.003 and 21.012 of the Human Resources Code. Section 12.003 of the Human Resources Code provides in relevant part:

(a) Except for purposes directly connected with the administration of the [commission's]³ assistance programs, it is an offense for a person to solicit, disclose, receive, or make use of, or to authorize, knowingly permit, participate in, or acquiesce in the use of the names of, or any information concerning, persons applying for or receiving assistance if the information is directly or indirectly derived from the records, papers, files, or communications of the [commission] or acquired by employees of the [commission] in the performance of their official duties.

Hum. Res. Code § 12.003(a) (footnote added); see also id. § 21.012 (requiring provision of safeguards that restrict use or disclosure of information concerning applicants for or recipients of assistance programs to purposes directly connected with administration of programs). The term "assistance" in sections 12.003 and 21.012 includes "all forms of assistance and services for needy persons authorized by Subtitle C" of title 2 of the Human Resources Code. Id. § 11.001(4); see also id. § 31.001 et seq. (Assistance Programs). In Open Records Decision No. 584 (1991), this office concluded that "[t]he inclusion of the words 'or any information' juxtaposed with the prohibition on disclosure of the names of the [commission]'s clients clearly expresses a legislative intent to encompass the broadest range of individual client information, and not merely the clients' names and addresses." Open Records Decision No. 584 at 3 (1991). Consequently, it is the specific information pertaining to individual clients, and not merely the clients' identities, that is made confidential under section 12.003. See also 42 U.S.C. § 1396a(a)(7) (state plan for medical assistance must provide safeguards that restrict use or disclosure of information concerning applicants and recipients to purposes directly connected with administration of plan); 42 C.F.R. §§ 431.300 et seq.; Hum. Res. Code § 21.012(a); Open Records Decision No. 166 (1977).

You state that the information at issue identifies individuals receiving benefits under SNAP. You further assert that each transaction in Exhibit C pertains to a specific individual receiving commission assistance. Upon review, we agree that the information in Exhibit C consists of information pertaining to individuals receiving commission assistance. You state and we agree that the release of this information in this instance would not be for purposes directly connected with the administration of these programs. Accordingly, we find the commission must withhold the information at issue in Exhibit C, which pertains to individual SNAP transactions, under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 12.003 of the Human Resources Code.⁴

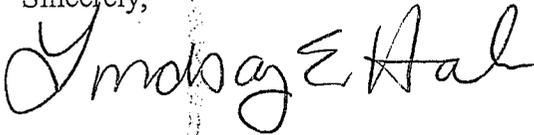

³*See* Act of June 10, 2003, 78th Leg., R.S., ch. 198, 2003 Tex. Gen. Laws 611, 641 (abolished Texas Department of Human Services).

⁴As our ruling is dispositive, we need not address your remaining arguments against disclosure of this information.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.oag.state.tx.us/open/index_orl.php, or call the Office of the Attorney General's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Act must be directed to the Cost Rules Administrator of the Office of the Attorney General, toll free at (888) 672-6787.
