Dear Ms. Sangsvang:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 424514 (PIR No. 0629-09).

The Fort Worth Police Department (the "department") received a request for "calls and reports that were filed against [the requestor] during October and November 2008." You state some responsive information has been released. You claim that the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.130 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

We note the submitted information, which consists of incident reports and call sheets from March, 2007 through September, 2008, is not responsive to the instant request. The requestor seeks calls and reports from October and November 2008. The department need not release non-responsive information in response to this request, and this ruling will not address that information. Accordingly, we need not address your submitted arguments. As you have not submitted any responsive information for our review, we assume the department has released all of the responsive information to the requestor. If not, then the department must do so immediately. See Gov't Code §§ 552.006, .301, .302; Open Records Decision No. 664 (2000).

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.oag.state.tx.us/open/index_orl.php, or call the Office of the Attorney General's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Act must be directed to the Cost Rules Administrator of the Office of the Attorney General, toll free, at (888) 672-6787.

Sincerely,

Cindy Nettles
Assistant Attorney General
