

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

June 8, 2011

Ms. Jessica Sangsvang
Assistant City Attorney
City of Fort Worth
1000 Throckmorton Street, 3rd Floor
Fort Worth, Texas 76102

OR2011-08155

Dear Ms. Sangsvang:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 424812 (PIR No. W008707).

The City of Fort Worth (the "city") received a request for information pertaining to a specified accident. You state the city has redacted certain Texas motor vehicle record information under section 552.130 of the Government Code pursuant to the previous determinations issued to the city. See Gov't Code § 552.301(a); Open Records Decision No. 673 at 7-8 (2001). Further, you state you have redacted social security numbers under section 552.147 of the Government Code.<sup>1</sup> You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Initially, the submitted information contains a Texas Peace Officer's Crash Report ("accident report"). Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses information that other statutes make confidential. Section 550.065(b) of the Transportation Code states that except as provided by subsection (c) or subsection (e), accident reports are privileged and confidential. See Transp. Code § 550.065. Section 550.065(c)(4) provides for the release of accident reports to a person who provides two of the following three pieces of information: (1) date of the accident; (2) name of any person involved in the accident; and (3) specific location of the accident. Id. § 550.065(c)(4). Under this provision, the Texas Department of Transportation or another governmental entity is required to release a copy of an accident report to a person who provides the agency with two or more pieces of information specified by the statute. Id. The submitted information includes an accident report that was completed pursuant to chapter 550 of the Transportation Code. See id. § 550.064 (officer's accident report). In this instance, the requestor has not provided the city with two of the three requisite pieces of information. Therefore, the city must withhold the CR-3 accident report pursuant to section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 550.065(b) of the Transportation Code.

Next, we note the submitted information includes documents signed by a magistrate. Information filed with a court is generally a matter of public record and may not be withheld from disclosure unless confidential under "other law." See Gov't Code § 552.022(a)(17); see also Star Telegram, Inc. v. Walker, 834 S.W.2d 54 (Tex. 1992). Although you raise section 552.108 of the Government Code for this information, section 552.108 is a discretionary exception that protects a governmental body's interests and is, therefore, not "other law" that makes court records confidential for the purposes of section 552.022. See Open Records Decision Nos. 665 at 2 n.5 (2000) (discretionary exceptions generally), 177 at 3 (1977) (governmental body may waive statutory predecessor to section 552.108). Thus, the court-filed documents may not be withheld under section 552.108 of the Government Code. As you raise no further exceptions to disclosure of these documents, they must be released.

Next, we address your claim under section 552.108 of the Government Code for the remaining information. Section 552.108(a)(1) excepts from disclosure "[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime . . . if . . . release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime[.]" Gov't Code § 552.108(a)(1). Generally, a governmental body claiming section 552.108(a)(1) must reasonably explain how and why the release of the requested information would interfere with law enforcement. See id. §§ 552.108(a)(1), .301(e)(1)(A); see also Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977).

We note the submitted information includes a statutory warning and a notice of suspension. Because copies of the warning and notice have been provided to the arrestee, we find that their release will not interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. See Gov't Code § 552.108(a)(1). Therefore, the city may not withhold the statutory warning or the notice of suspension under section 552.108(a)(1).

You state, and provide an affidavit from the Tarrant County Criminal District Attorney's office confirming, that the remaining information relates to an open and pending criminal investigation and prosecution. Based upon your representation, the submitted affidavit, and our review, we conclude that the release of the remaining information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. See Houston Chronicle Publ'g Co. v.

City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975) (court delineates law enforcement interests that are present in active cases), writ ref'd n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976). Thus, section 552.108(a)(1) is applicable to the remaining information.<sup>2</sup>

However, basic information about an arrested person, an arrest, or a crime is not excepted from disclosure under section 552.108. Gov't Code § 552.108(c). Such basic information refers to the information held to be public in Houston Chronicle. See 531 S.W.2d at 186-8; see also Open Records Decision No. 127 (1976) (summarizing types of information deemed public by Houston Chronicle). Thus, with the exception of the statutory warning, notice of suspension, and basic information, the city may withhold the remaining information under section 552.108(a)(1).

In summary, the city must withhold the submitted accident report pursuant to section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 550.065(b) of the Transportation Code. The submitted the court-filed documents must be released pursuant to section 552.022(a)(17) of the Government Code. With the exception of the statutory warning, notice of suspension, and basic information, the city may withhold the remaining information under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.
