Dear Mr. Griffith:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 426279.

The McKinney Police Department (the "department"), which you represent, received a request for information pertaining to two named individuals. You state that some responsive information has been released to the requestor. You claim that the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses the doctrine of common-law privacy, which protects information that (1) contains highly intimate or embarrassing facts, the publication of which would be highly objectionable to a reasonable person, and (2) is not of legitimate concern to the public. Indus. Found. v. Tex. Indus. Accident Bd., 540 S.W.2d 668, 685 (Tex. 1976). To demonstrate the applicability of common-law privacy, both prongs of this test must be demonstrated. Id. at 681-82.

A compilation of an individual's criminal history is highly embarrassing information, the publication of which would be highly objectionable to a reasonable person. Cf. United States Dep't of Justice v. Reporters Comm. for Freedom of the Press, 489 U.S. 749, 764 (1989) (finding significant privacy interest in compilation of individual's criminal history by recognizing distinction between public records found in courthouse files and local police stations and compiled summary of criminal history information). Furthermore, we find that a compilation of a private citizen's criminal history is generally not of legitimate concern to the public.

In this instance, the request seeks unspecified law enforcement records pertaining to named individuals. Thus, the request implicates the individuals' right to privacy. Therefore, to the extent the department maintains records listing the named individuals as suspects, arrestees, or criminal defendants, the department must withhold this information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy.

We note that you have submitted records that do not list the named individuals as a suspect, arrestee, or defendant. This information may not be withheld under section 552.101 as a compilation of the individual's criminal history on the basis of common-law privacy. However, we will address your arguments against the disclosure of this information.

Section 552.101 also encompasses information other statutes make confidential. You claim section 552.101 in conjunction with section 58.007 of the Family Code, which provides in part:

(c). Except as provided by Subsection (d), law enforcement records and files concerning a child and information stored, by electronic means or otherwise, concerning the child from which a record or file could be generated may not be disclosed to the public and shall be:

- (1) if maintained on paper or microfilm, kept separate from adult files and records;
- (2) if maintained electronically in the same computer system as records or files relating to adults, be accessible under controls that are separate and distinct from controls to access electronic data concerning adults; and
- (3) maintained on a local basis only and not sent to a central state or federal depository, except as provided by Subchapters B, D, and E.

Fam. Code § 58.007(c); see id. § 51.03(a) (defining "delinquent conduct" for purposes of title 3 of Fam. Code). Section 58.007(c) is applicable to records of juvenile conduct that occurred on or after September 1, 1997. See Act of June 2, 1997, 75th Leg., R.S., ch. 1086, §§ 20, 55(a), 1997 Tex. Gen. Laws 4179, 4187, 4199; Open Records Decision No. 644 (1996). The juvenile must have been at least 10 years old and less than 17 years of age when the conduct occurred. See Fam. Code § 51.02(2) (defining "child" for purposes of title 3 of Fam. Code). Section 58.007(c) is not applicable to information that relates to a juvenile as a complainant, victim, witness, or other involved party and not as a suspect or offender. We find report number 09-03279 involves a juvenile offender, so as to fall within the scope of section 58.007(c). It does not appear that any of the exceptions in section 58.007 apply; therefore, the department must withhold report number 09-03279 under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 58.007 of the Family Code.

You seek to withhold the remaining records under section 552.108 of the Government Code. Section 552.108(a)(2) excepts from disclosure information concerning an investigation that concluded in a result other than conviction or deferred adjudication. A governmental body claiming section 552.108(a)(2) must demonstrate that the requested information relates to a criminal investigation that has concluded in a final result other than a conviction or deferred adjudication. Gov't Code §§ 552.108(a)(2), .301(e)(1)(A). You state that the remaining information pertains to closed cases that concluded in results other than conviction or deferred adjudication. Therefore, we agree that section 552.108(a)(2) is generally applicable to this information.

However, section 552.108 does not except from disclosure basic information about an arrested person, an arrest, or a crime. Id. § 552.108(c). Basic information refers to the information held to be public in Houston Chronicle Publ'g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177, 186-7 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston[14th Dist.] 1975), writ ref'd n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976). Thus, with the exception of basic information which must be released, the department may withhold the remaining information, which we have marked, under section 552.108(a)(2) of the Government Code.

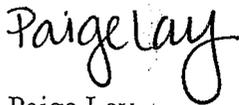

In summary, to the extent the department maintains records listing the named individuals as suspects, arrestees, or criminal defendants, the department must withhold this information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy. The department must withhold report number 09-03279 under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 58.007 of the Family Code. With the exception of basic information which must be released, the department may withhold the remaining information under section 552.108(a)(2) of the Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
