

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

June 24, 2011

Mr. B. Chase Griffith
For City of McKinney
Brown & Hofmeister, L.L.P.
740 East Campbell Road, Suite 800
Richardson, Texas 75081

OR2011-09065

Dear Mr. Griffith:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 421670 (McKinney ORR# 10-3657).

The McKinney Police Department (the "department"), which you represent, received a request for information related to two specified cases. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses section 261.201 of the Family Code, which states:

(a) Except as provided by Section 261.203, the following information is confidential, is not subject to public release under Chapter 552, Government Code, and may be disclosed only for purposes consistent with this code and applicable federal or state law or under rules adopted by an investigating agency:

(1) a report of alleged or suspected abuse or neglect made under this chapter and the identity of the person making the report; and

(2) except as otherwise provided in this section, the files, reports, records, communications, audiotapes, videotapes, and working papers used or developed in an investigation under this chapter or in providing services as a result of an investigation.

(k) Notwithstanding Subsection (a), an investigating agency, other than the department or the Texas Youth Commission, on request, shall provide to the parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative of a child who is the subject of reported abuse or neglect, or to the child if the child is at least 18 years of age, information concerning the reported abuse or neglect that would otherwise be confidential under this section. The investigating agency shall withhold information under this subsection if the parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative of the child requesting the information is alleged to have committed the abuse or neglect.

(l) Before a child or a parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative of a child may inspect or copy a record or file concerning the child under Subsection (k), the custodian of the record or file must redact:

(1) any personally identifiable information about a victim or witness under 18 years of age unless that victim or witness is:

(A) the child who is the subject of the report; or

(B) another child of the parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative requesting the information;

(2) any information that is excepted from required disclosure under Chapter 552, Government Code, or other law; and

(3) the identity of the person who made the report.

Fam. Code § 261.201(a), (k)–(l). Upon review, we agree the submitted information was used or developed in an investigation of alleged child abuse. See id. § 261.001(1)(E) (defining “abuse” for purposes of chapter 261 of the Family Code as including offense of sexual assault under section 22.011 of the Penal Code); see also Penal Code § 22.011 (defining “child” for purposes of sexual assault as a child as person under 17 years of age). We also agree the requestor in this case is the parent of the child named in the report, and the requestor is not accused of having committed the abuse or neglect. Accordingly, we agree the department may not withhold from this requestor information concerning the alleged abuse or neglect that would otherwise be confidential under section 261.201(a). See id.

§ 261.201(k). Nonetheless, before the department provides information concerning this report, it must redact the identity of the person who made the report under section 261.201(1)(3). The department also must redact any information that is otherwise excepted from required disclosure under the Act. See id. § 261.201(1)(2). As you raise section 552.108 as an exception, we will consider its applicability to this information.

Section 552.108(a)(2) excepts from disclosure information concerning an investigation that concluded in a result other than conviction or deferred adjudication. Gov't Code § 552.108(a)(2). A governmental body claiming section 552.108(a)(2) must demonstrate that the requested information relates to a criminal investigation that has concluded in a final result other than a conviction or deferred adjudication. See id. § 552.301(e)(1)(A); Open Records Decision No. 434 at 2–3 (1986). You state the investigations related to the submitted information have been closed and no further action was taken. You explain that no charges were filed in either case; therefore, they have concluded in a result other than conviction or deferred adjudication. Based on these representations and our review, we agree section 552.108(a)(2) is applicable to the submitted information.

However, section 552.108 does not except from disclosure basic information about an arrested person, an arrest, or a crime. Gov't Code § 552.108(c). Basic information refers to the information held to be public in Houston Chronicle Publishing Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975), writ ref'd n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976). This information includes a detailed description of the offense and the identification and description of the complainant. See Open Records Decision No. 127 (1976) (summarizing types of information deemed public by Houston Chronicle). We note the complainant in case 10-002307 is also the reporting party. We further note the basic information in case 10-002725 identifies the reporting party. As discussed above, the department must withhold the reporting party's identity, which we have marked, under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 261.201(1)(3) of the Family Code. With the exception of the remaining basic information, which must be released, the department may withhold the submitted information under section 552.108(a)(2) of the Government Code.¹

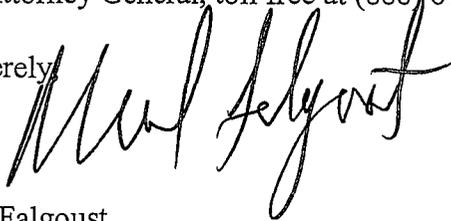

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.oag.state.tx.us/open/index_orl.php, ¹We note the requestor has a special right of access to the information the department is releasing. Because such information is confidential with respect to the general public, if the department receives another request for this information from a different requestor, the department must again seek a ruling from this office.
