

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

August 5, 2011

Sheriff Joe D. Tackitt, Jr.
Wilson County
P.O. Box 7
Floresville, Texas 78114

OR2011-11303

Dear Sheriff Tackitt:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 426092.

The Wilson County Sheriff's Office (the "sheriff") received a request for six categories of information, including all internal investigations of a named deputy. You state the sheriff does not maintain some of the requested information.¹ You state the sheriff has released some of the requested information. You claim that the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime . . . if . . . release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime[.]" Gov't Code § 552.108(a)(1). A governmental body claiming section 552.108 must reasonably explain how and why the release of the requested information would interfere with law enforcement. See id. §§ 552.108(a)(1), .301(e)(1)(A); see also Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977). In this instance, the submitted information consists of records of an internal affairs investigation.

Section 552.108 is generally not applicable to the records of an internal affairs investigation that is purely administrative in nature and does not involve the investigation or prosecution of crime. See City of Fort Worth v. Cornyn, 86 S.W.3d 320 (Tex. App.—Austin 2002, no pet.); Morales v. Ellen, 840 S.W.2d 519, 525-26 (Tex. Civ. App.—El Paso 1992, writ denied) (statutory predecessor to section 552.108 not applicable to internal investigation that did not result in criminal investigation or prosecution); see also Open Records Decision No. 350 at 3-4 (1982). You represent to this office that the information at issue relates to an incident that is the subject of a pending criminal case. You state release of Exhibit C would interfere with the investigation or prosecution of crime. Based on your representations, we conclude the sheriff may withhold Exhibit C under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code. See Houston Chronicle Publ'g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975) (court delineates law enforcement interests that are present in active cases), writ ref'd n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976).

Section 552.130 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure information relating to a motor vehicle operator's or driver's license, motor vehicle title, or registration issued by an agency of this state or another state or country.² Act of May 24, 2011, 82nd Leg., R.S., S.B. 1638, § 4 (to be codified as an amendment to Gov't Code § 552.130). Upon review, we find the sheriff must withhold the driver's license number and license plate we have marked in Exhibit B under section 552.130.

In summary, the sheriff may withhold Exhibit C under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code. The sheriff must withhold the motor vehicle record information we have marked in Exhibit B under section 552.130 of the Government Code. The remaining information must be released.³

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.
