

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

August 18, 2011

Mr. Robert Almonte
Assistant City Attorney
City of El Paso
2 Civic Center Plaza, 9th Floor
El Paso, Texas 79901

OR2011-12008

Dear Mr. Almonte:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 427230.

The City of El Paso (the "city") received a request for all records pertaining to report numbers 11-057067 and 11-065662. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Initially, we note you have only submitted information pertaining to report number 11-057067. To the extent records related to report number 11-065662 existed on the date the city received the request, we assume they have been released. If not, the city must release that information at this time. See Gov't Code §§ 552.301(a), .302; see also Open Records Decision No. 664 (2000) (if governmental body concludes that no exceptions apply to requested information, it must release information as soon as possible).

Next, we note the city has redacted portions of the submitted information. Pursuant to section 552.301 of the Government Code, a governmental body that seeks to withhold requested information must submit to this office a copy of the information, labeled to indicate which exceptions apply to which parts of the copy, unless the information is subject to a previous determination issued by this office or to a specific provision of law that expressly allows for the redaction of information without the necessity of requesting a decision. See Gov't Code § 552.301(a), (e)(1)(D). The redacted information includes a social security number, which you are authorized to redact under section 552.147(b) of the Government Code.<sup>1</sup> However, you do not assert, nor does our review of the records indicate, that you have been authorized to withhold any of the remaining redacted information without seeking a ruling from this office. See id. § 552.301(a); Open Records Decision No. 673 (2000). As such, the information must be submitted in a manner that enables this office to determine whether the information comes within the scope of an exception to disclosure. In this instance, we can discern the nature of the redacted information; thus, being deprived of that information does not inhibit our ability to make a ruling. However, in the future, the city must not redact requested information that it submits to this office in seeking an open records ruling, unless the information is the subject of a previous determination or the city is authorized by statute to do so. Failure to comply with section 552.301 may result in the information being presumed public under section 552.302 of the Government Code. See Gov't Code § 552.302.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Id. § 552.101. This section encompasses information made confidential by other statutes, such as section 261.201(a) of the Family Code, which provides as follows:

(a) Except as provided by section 261.203, the following information is confidential, is not subject to public release under Chapter 552, Government Code, and may be disclosed only for purposes consistent with this code and applicable federal or state law or under rules adopted by an investigating agency:

- (1) a report of alleged or suspected abuse or neglect made under this chapter and the identity of the person making the report; and
- (2) except as otherwise provided in this section, the files, reports, records, communications, audiotapes, and videotapes, and working papers used or developed in an investigation under this chapter or in providing services as a result of an investigation.

Fam. Code § 261.201(a). In this instance, you represent the submitted information pertaining to report number 11-057067 was used or developed in an investigation by the city's police department (the "department") of alleged child abuse. See id. §§ 261.001(1) (defining "abuse" for purposes of Fam. Code ch. 261), 101.003(a) (defining "child" for purposes of section 261.201 as person under 18 years of age who is not and has not been married or who has not had the disabilities of minority removed for general purposes). Thus, we find the submitted information falls within the scope of section 261.201. You do not indicate the department has adopted a rule governing the release of this type of information. Therefore, we find the submitted information is confidential pursuant to section 261.201 of the Family Code and must be withheld in its entirety under section 552.101 of the Government Code.<sup>2</sup> See Open Records Decision No. 440 at 2 (1986) (construing predecessor statute).

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
