

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

September 27, 2011

Ms. Janet I. Monteros
Assistant County Attorney
El Paso County
500 East San Antonio, Room 503
El Paso, Texas 79901

OR2011-13981

Dear Ms. Monteros:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 431065 (CA-OP-11-282).

The El Paso County Sheriff's Office (the "sheriff") received a request for a specified police report. You state the sheriff will release some information to the requestor. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.103 and 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision."¹ Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 of the Government Code encompasses information that other statutes make confidential, such as section 261.201 of the Family Code, which provides in part:

(a) Except as provided by Section 261.203, the following information is confidential, is not subject to public release under [the Act], and may be disclosed only for purposes consistent with this code and applicable federal or state law or under rules adopted by an investigating agency:

¹The Office of the Attorney General will raise a mandatory exception on behalf of a governmental body, but ordinarily will not raise other exceptions. See Open Records Decision Nos. 481 (1987), 480 (1987), 470 (1987).

- (1) a report of alleged or suspected abuse or neglect made under this chapter and the identity of the person making the report; and
- (2) except as otherwise provided in this section, the files, reports, records, communications, audiotapes, videotapes, and working papers used or developed in an investigation under this chapter or in providing services as a result of an investigation.

(k) Notwithstanding Subsection (a), an investigating agency, other than the [Texas Department of Family and Protective Services] or the Texas Youth Commission, on request, shall provide to the parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative of a child who is the subject of reported abuse or neglect, or to the child if the child is at least 18 years of age, information concerning the reported abuse or neglect that would otherwise be confidential under this section. The investigating agency shall withhold information under this subsection if the parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative of the child requesting the information is alleged to have committed the abuse or neglect.

(l) Before a child or a parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative of a child may inspect or copy a record or file concerning the child under Subsection (k), the custodian of the record or file must redact:

- (1) any personally identifiable information about a victim or witness under 18 years of age unless that victim or witness is:
 - (A) the child who is the subject of the report; or
 - (B) another child of the parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative requesting the information;
- (2) any information that is excepted from required disclosure under [the Act], or other law; and
- (3) the identity of the person who made the report.

Fam. Code § 261.201(a), (k), (l). Upon review, we find the submitted information was used or developed in an investigation of alleged child abuse under chapter 261 of the Family

Code. See id. §§ 261.001(E) (defining “abuse” for the purposes of chapter 261 of the Family Code as including offense of sexual assault under Penal Code section 22.011); Penal Code § 22.011(c)(1) (defining “child” for purposes of Penal Code section 22.011 as person under 17 years of age). Therefore, we find this information is generally confidential under section 261.201. However, the requestor is a parent of the child victim and is not alleged to have committed the alleged abuse. Accordingly, the sheriff may not withhold the submitted information from this requestor on the basis of section 261.201(a). See Fam. Code 261.201(k). However, section 261.201(l)(2) provides that any information that is excepted from required disclosure under the Act or other law may be withheld from disclosure. Id. § 261.201(l)(2). You raise sections 552.103 and 552.108 of the Government Code for the submitted information. Accordingly, we will consider your arguments under these exceptions.

Section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure “[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime . . . if . . . release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime[.]” Gov’t Code § 552.108(a)(1). A governmental body must reasonably explain how and why section 552.108 is applicable to the information at issue. See id. § 552.301(e)(1)(A); Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977). You state the submitted information relates to a pending criminal investigation and its release at this time would interfere with the foreseen prosecution of the underlying offense. Based on this representation and our review, we conclude section 552.108(a)(1) is applicable to the submitted information. See Houston Chronicle Publ’g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975), writ ref’d n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976) (court delineates law enforcement interests that are present in active cases). Thus, the sheriff may withhold the submitted information under section 552.108(a)(1).² As our ruling is dispositive, we need not address your remaining argument against release of the submitted information.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. ²We note this requestor has a right of access under section 261.201(k) of the Family Code to information that would be confidential with respect to the general public. Thus, if the sheriff receives another request for this same information from a different requestor, the sheriff should resubmit this information and request another decision. See Gov’t Code §§ 552.301(a), .302.
