

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

October 17, 2011

Ms. Katie Lentz
Open Records
Williamson County Sheriff's Office
508 South Rock Street
Georgetown, Texas 78626

OR2011-15037

Dear Ms. Lentz:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 433277.

The Williamson County Sheriff's Office (the "sheriff") received a request for a specified investigation file. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101, 552.108, and 552.130 of the Government Code. We also understand you to raise section 552.147 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This section encompasses section 261.201 of the Family Code, which provides in relevant part:

(a) [T]he following information is confidential, is not subject to public release under [the Act] and may be disclosed only for purposes consistent with this code and applicable federal or state law or under rules adopted by an investigating agency:

(1) a report of alleged or suspected abuse or neglect made under this chapter and the identity of the person making the report; and

(2) except as otherwise provided in this section, the files, reports, records, communications, audiotapes, videotapes, and working papers used or developed in an investigation under this chapter or in providing services as a result of an investigation.

(k) Notwithstanding Subsection (a), an investigating agency, other than the [Texas Department of Family and Protective Services] or the Texas Youth Commission, on request, shall provide to the parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative of a child who is the subject of reported abuse or neglect, or to the child if the child is at least 18 years of age, information concerning the reported abuse or neglect that would otherwise be confidential under this section. The investigating agency shall withhold information under this subsection if the parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative of the child requesting the information is alleged to have committed the abuse or neglect.

(l) Before a child or a parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative of a child may inspect or copy a record or file concerning the child under Subsection (k), the custodian of the record or file must redact:

(2) any information that is excepted from required disclosure under [the Act], or other law; and

(3) the identity of the person who made the report.

Fam. Code § 261.201(a), (k), (l)(2)-(3). You represent the submitted information was used or developed in the sheriff's investigation of alleged child abuse. See id. §§ 261.001(1) (defining "abuse" for purposes of chapter 261 of Family Code), 101.003(a) (defining "child" as person under eighteen years of age who is not and has not been married and who has not had the disabilities of minority removed for general purposes). Accordingly, we find the submitted information is subject to section 261.201. We note, however, the requestor is an attorney representing the alleged child victim's parents and the parents are not alleged to have committed the abuse. Therefore, the sheriff may not withhold the submitted information from the requestor under section 261.201(a). See id. § 261.201(k). However, section 261.201(l)(2) states that any information excepted from required disclosure under the Act or other law may still be withheld from disclosure. See id. § 261.201(l)(2). Because you also raise sections 552.108, 552.130, and 552.147 of the Government Code for the submitted information, we consider the applicability of these exceptions.

Section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure “[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime . . . if . . . release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime[.]” Gov’t Code § 552.108(a)(1). A governmental body must reasonably explain how and why section 552.108 is applicable to the information at issue. See id. § 552.301(e)(1)(A); Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977). You state the submitted information pertains to an open criminal investigation. Based on your representation and our review, we conclude release of the submitted information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. See Houston Chronicle Publ’g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975) (court delineates law enforcement interests that are present in active cases), writ ref’d per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976). Therefore, section 552.108(a)(1) is applicable to the submitted information.

Section 552.108 does not except from disclosure “basic information about an arrested person, an arrest, or a crime.” Gov’t Code § 552.108(c). Section 552.108(c) refers to the basic front-page information held to be public in Houston Chronicle. See 531 S.W.2d at 186-88; see also Open Records Decision No. 127 (1976) (summarizing types of information deemed public by Houston Chronicle). Basic information includes the identity of the complainant. Id. at 4. However, one of the complainants listed in the submitted information is also the reporting party. We note section 261.201(l)(3) of the Family Code states that the identity of the reporting party must be withheld. See Fam. Code § 261.201(l)(3). Thus, with the exception of basic information, the submitted information may be withheld under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.¹ However, in releasing basic information, the sheriff must withhold the identifying information of the reporting party, which we have marked, under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 261.201(l)(3) of the Family Code.²

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.oag.state.tx.us/open/index_orl.php, or call the Office of the Attorney General’s Open Government Hotline, toll free, ¹As our ruling for this information is dispositive, we need not address your remaining arguments, except to note that the basic information described in Houston Chronicle does not include information subject to section 552.130 of the Government Code or a suspect’s social security number.

²The requestor has a special right of access under section 261.201(k) of the Family Code to some of the information being released. See Fam. Code § 261.201(k). Accordingly, if the sheriff receives another request for this information from a different requestor, then the sheriff should again seek a decision from this office. See Gov’t Code §§ 552.301, .302; Open Records Decision No. 673 (2001).
