Dear Mr. Moore:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the “Act”), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 433563 (TAMU 11-447).

Texas A&M University (the “university”) received a request for the police report related to a specified case. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.103 and 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure “[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime . . . if . . . release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime.” Gov’t Code § 552.108(a)(1). A governmental body claiming section 552.108 must reasonably explain how and why the release of the requested information would interfere with law enforcement. See id. §§ 552.108(a)(1), .301(e)(1)(A); see also Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977). You state the university’s police department and the Brazos County Attorney seek to withhold the information you have marked because it relates to a pending criminal prosecution and release of the information would interfere with that prosecution. See Houston Chronicle Publ’g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975) (court delineates law enforcement interests that are present in active cases), writ ref’d n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976). Thus, we find section 552.108(a)(1) generally applicable. We note, however, the information you seek to withhold includes a copy of the citation provided to one of the defendants in this case. We find you have not demonstrated how the release of this information, which we have marked, would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of the crime.

We further note section 552.108 does not except from disclosure basic information about an arrested person, an arrest, or a crime. Gov't Code § 552.108(c). Basic information refers to the information held to be public in Houston Chronicle. 531 S.W.2d at 186–87. This information includes, but is not limited to, a detailed description of the offense. See Open Records Decision No. 127 (1976) (summarizing types of information deemed public by Houston Chronicle). Upon review, we find you have marked the entire narrative portion of the submitted report as information you seek to withhold. Consequently, the information you will release does not contain enough information to satisfy the requirement that a detailed description of the offense be released as basic information. See ORD 127. Accordingly, you must release enough of the narrative to encompass a detailed description of the offense to satisfy the required release of basic information pursuant to Houston Chronicle. Therefore, with the exception of basic information, including enough of the narrative to encompass a detailed description of the offense, and the citation we have marked for release, the university may withhold the information you have marked under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.¹

You also claim the citation is excepted under section 552.103 of the Government Code, which provides:

(a) Information is excepted from [required public disclosure] if it is information relating to litigation of a civil or criminal nature to which the state or a political subdivision is or may be a party or to which an officer or employee of the state or a political subdivision, as a consequence of the person's office or employment, is or may be a party.

(c) Information relating to litigation involving a governmental body or an officer or employee of a governmental body is excepted from disclosure under Subsection (a) only if the litigation is pending or reasonably anticipated on the date that the requestor applies to the officer for public information for access to or duplication of the information.

¹As our ruling is dispositive, we do not address your remaining argument against disclosure for this information, except to note that, generally, basic information held to be public in Houston Chronicle is not excepted from public disclosure under section 552.103 of the Government Code. See Open Records Decision No. 597 (1991).

Gov't Code § 552.103(a), (c). The governmental body has the burden of providing relevant facts and documents to show the section 552.103(a) exception is applicable in a particular situation. The test for meeting this burden is a showing that (1) litigation is pending or reasonably anticipated on the date the governmental body received the request for information, and (2) the information at issue is related to that litigation. Univ. of Tex. Law Sch. v. Tex. Legal Found., 958 S.W.2d 479, 481 (Tex. App.—Austin 1997, no pet.); Heard v. Houston Post Co., 684 S.W.2d 210, 212 (Tex. App.—Houston [1st Dist.] 1984, writ ref'd n.r.e.); Open Records Decision No. 551 at 4 (1990). The governmental body must meet both prongs of this test for information to be excepted under section 552.103(a).

We note the purpose of section 552.103 is to enable a governmental body to protect its position in litigation by forcing parties to obtain information related to litigation through the discovery process. See Open Records Decision No. 551 at 4-5. Thus, any information obtained from or provided to all other parties in the pending litigation is not excepted from disclosure under section 552.103(a) and must be disclosed. Upon review, we find the citation we have marked has been provided to the individual cited. Accordingly, the university may not withhold this information under section 552.103 of the Government Code.

Section 552.130 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure information related to a motor vehicle operator's or driver's license or permit issued by an agency of this state or another state or country and information related to a motor vehicle title or registration issued by an agency of this state or another state or country. Act of May 24, 2011, 82nd Leg., R.S., S.B. 1638, § 4 (to be codified as an amendment to Gov't Code § 552.130). Accordingly, the university must withhold the driver's license numbers you have marked, and the driver's license and license plate numbers we have marked, under section 552.130 of the Government Code.²

In summary, with the exception of basic information, which must include enough of the narrative to satisfy a detailed description of the offense, and the citation we have marked, the university may withhold the information you have marked under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code. The university must withhold the driver's license numbers you have marked, and the driver's license and license plate numbers we have marked, under section 552.130 of the Government Code. The remaining information must be released.³

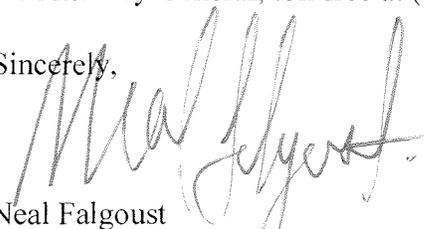

²We note this office has issued Open Records Decision No. 684 (2009), a previous determination to all governmental bodies authorizing them to withhold ten categories of information, including Texas license plate numbers under section 552.130 of the Government Code, without the necessity of requesting an attorney general decision.

³We note the citation contains a social security number. Section 552.147 of the Government Code authorizes a governmental body to redact a living person's social security number from public release without the necessity of requesting a decision from this office. See Gov't Code § 552.147(b).

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.oag.state.tx.us/open/index_orl.php, or call the Office of the Attorney General's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839.
