

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

December 15, 2011

Ms. Kerri L. Butcher
Interim Chief Counsel
Capital Metropolitan Transportation Authority
2910 East Fifth Street
Austin, Texas 78702

OR2011-18444

Dear Ms. Butcher:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 439320.

The Capital Metropolitan Transportation Authority (the "authority") received a request for information concerning accidents in which LeFleur Transportation, Inc. ("LeFleur") vehicles were involved during a specified time period. You state some information will be released to the requestor. We note you have redacted some social security numbers pursuant to section 552.147(b) of the Government Code.¹ You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. In addition, you state release of the requested information may implicate LeFleur's interests. Accordingly, you provide documentation showing you have notified LeFleur of the request and its right to submit arguments to this office. See Gov't Code § 552.305(d); see also Open Records Decision No. 542 (1990) (statutory predecessor to section 552.305 permits governmental body to rely on interested third party to raise and explain applicability of exception in the Act in certain circumstances). We have received comments from an attorney for LeFleur. We have considered the submitted arguments and reviewed the submitted information.

¹Section 552.147(b) of the Government Code authorizes a governmental body to redact a living person's social security number from public release without the necessity of requesting an attorney general decision under the Act. See Gov't Code § 552.147(b).

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure “information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision.” This section encompasses information protected by other statutes, such as section 31306 of title 49 of the United States Code and section 382.405 of title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations. Section 31306 relates to alcohol and controlled substances testing for operators of commercial motor vehicles and provides in relevant part:

(b) Testing program for operators of commercial motor vehicles. — (1)(A) In the interest of commercial motor vehicle safety, the Secretary of Transportation shall prescribe regulations that establish a program requiring motor carriers to conduct preemployment, reasonable suspicion, random, and post-accident testing of operators of commercial motor vehicles for the use of a controlled substance in violation of law or a United States Government regulation and to conduct reasonable suspicion, random, and post-accident testing of such operators for the use of alcohol in violation of law or a United States Government regulation

49 U.S.C. § 31306(b)(1)(A). Section 31306(c) pertains to testing and laboratory requirements and provides that

[i]n carrying out subsection (b) of this section, the Secretary of Transportation shall develop requirements that shall —

(7) provide for the confidentiality of test results and medical information (except information about alcohol or a controlled substance) of employees, except that this clause does not prevent the use of test results for the orderly imposition of appropriate sanctions under this section[.]

Id. § 31306(c)(7). Therefore, pursuant to section 31306(c)(7), federal regulations clarify the extent to which test results pertaining to operators of motor vehicles are confidential. Section 382.401 of title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations, titled “Retention of records,” requires employers to retain certain records pertaining to alcohol and controlled substances testing. See 49 C.F.R. § 382.401. Section 382.401 provides in part:

(a) General requirement. Each employer shall maintain records of its alcohol misuse and controlled substances use prevention programs as provided in this section. The records shall be maintained in a secure location with controlled access.

(b) Period of retention. Each employer shall maintain the records in accordance with the following schedule:

(1) Five years. The following records shall be maintained for a minimum of five years:

(i) Records of driver alcohol test results indicating an alcohol concentration of 0.02 or greater,

(ii) Records of driver verified positive controlled substances test results,

(iii) Documentation of refusals to take required alcohol and/or controlled substances tests,

(iv) Driver evaluation and referrals,

(v) Calibration documentation,

(vi) Records related to the administration of the alcohol and controlled substances testing programs, and

(vii) A copy of each annual calendar year summary required by § 382.403.

(2) Two years. Records related to the alcohol and controlled substances collection process (except calibration of evidential breath testing devices).

(3) One year. Records of negative and canceled controlled substances test results (as defined in part 40 of this title) and alcohol test results with a concentration of less than 0.02 shall be maintained for a minimum of one year.

(c) Types of records. The following specific types of records shall be maintained. "Documents generated" are documents that may have to be prepared under a requirement of this part. If the record is required to be prepared, it must be maintained.

(1) Records related to the collection process:

(ii) Documents relating to the random selection process;

...

(v) Documents generated in connection with decisions to administer reasonable suspicion alcohol or controlled substances tests; [and]

(vi) Documents generated in connection with decisions on post-accident tests[.]

Id. § 382.401(a)-(c). Section 382.405 of title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations, titled “Access to facilities and records,” provides in part:

(a) Except as required by law or expressly authorized or required in this section, no employer shall release driver information that is contained in records required to be maintained under § 382.401.

(b) A driver is entitled, upon written request, to obtain copies of any records pertaining to the driver’s use of alcohol or controlled substances, including any records pertaining to his or her alcohol or controlled substances tests. The employer shall promptly provide the records requested by the driver. Access to a driver’s records shall not be contingent upon payment for records other than those specifically requested.

Id. § 382.405(a)-(b). The submitted information pertains to the post-accident testing of commercial drivers pursuant to section 31306 of title 49 of the United States Code and section 382.401 of title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations. We understand the authority maintains this information as required under section 382.401 of title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations. You do not indicate any written consent has been given with respect to disclosure of the information in question. Having reviewed the submitted information, we conclude the submitted information is confidential under section 31306 of title 49 of the United States Code and section 382.405 of title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations, and must be withheld under section 552.101 of the Government Code on that basis.²

²As our ruling is dispositive, we do not address the authority’s or LeFleur’s arguments against disclosure.
