Dear Mr. Ortiz:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 444676.

The Converse Municipal Court (the "court"), which you represent, received a request for information related to traffic cases.¹ You contend the requested information is not subject to the Act. You also believe some of the requested information may be excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101, 552.108, 552.130, 552.142, and 552.148 of the Government Code. We have considered your arguments and reviewed the information you submitted.²

Although the Act is applicable to information "collected, assembled, or maintained under a law or ordinance or in connection with the transaction of official business by a governmental body," Gov't Code. § 552.002(a)(1), the Act's definition of "governmental body" "does not include the judiciary." Id. § 552.003(1)(B). Information "collected, assembled, or ¹We note the requestor states he is "seeking to obtain a recurring report" containing information on traffic cases. The Act does not require a governmental body to release information that did not exist when it received a request for information, create responsive information, obtain information that is not held by the governmental body or on its behalf, or comply with a standing request to provide information on a periodic basis. See Econ. Opportunities Dev. Corp. v. Bustamante, 562 S.W.2d 266 (Tex. Civ. App.—San Antonio 1978, writ dismissed); Open Records Decision Nos. 605 at 2 (1992), 534 at 2-3 (1989), 518 at 3 (1989), 476 at 1 (1987), 452 at 3 (1986), 362 at 2 (1983).

²This letter ruling assumes the submitted representative sample of information is truly representative of the requested information as a whole. This ruling neither reaches nor authorizes the court to withhold any information that is substantially different from the submitted information. See Gov't Code §§ 552.301(e)(1)(D), .302; Open Records Decision Nos. 499 at 6 (1988), 497 at 4 (1988).

maintained by or for the judiciary” is not subject to the Act but instead is “governed by rules adopted by the Supreme Court of Texas or by other applicable laws and rules.” Id. § 552.0035(a); cf. Open Records Decision No. 131 (1976) (applying statutory predecessor to judiciary exclusion under Gov’t Code § 552.003(1)(B) prior to enactment of Gov’t Code § 552.0035). The present request is for information maintained by the court. Therefore, we conclude the requested information is not subject to the Act and need not be released in response to this request for information.³ As we are able to make this determination, we need not address your exceptions to disclosure.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. Sincerely,

James W. Morris, III
Assistant Attorney General
