You claim portions of the submitted information are excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

The submitted information includes the telephone number and address of a 9-1-1 caller. In Open Records Letter No. 2011-16393 (2011), this office issued a previous determination to the department authorizing the department to withhold the originating telephone number and address of a 9-1-1 caller furnished to the department by a service supplier established in accordance with chapter 772 of the Health and Safety Code under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 772.318 of the Health and Safety Code without requesting a decision from this office. See Gov't Code § 552.301(a); Open Records Decision No. 673 (2001) (listing elements of second type of previous determination under section 552.301(a) of Government Code). You state the telephone number and address in the submitted information are the originating telephone number and address of a 9-1-1 caller furnished by a service supplier established in accordance with chapter 772. As such, the department must withhold the telephone number and address you have marked and indicated in this information in accordance with the previous determination issued to the department in Open Records Letter No. 2011-16393.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.
