

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

December 20, 2011

Ms. Lillian Guillen Graham
Assistant City Attorney
City of Mesquite
P.O. Box 850137
Mesquite, Texas 75185-0137

OR2011-18721

Dear Ms. Graham:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 439494.

The City of Mesquite (the "city") received a request for report number 11105083. You claim the requested information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses section 261.201 of the Family Code, which provides as follows:

(a) [T]he following information is confidential, is not subject to public release under [the Act] and may be disclosed only for purposes consistent with this code and applicable federal or state law or under rules adopted by an investigating agency:

(1) a report of alleged or suspected abuse or neglect made under this chapter and the identity of the person making the report; and

(2) except as otherwise provided in this section, the files, reports, records, communications, audiotapes, videotapes, and working papers used or developed in an investigation under this chapter or in providing services as a result of an investigation.

(k) Notwithstanding Subsection (a), an investigating agency, other than the [Texas Department of Family and Protective Services] or the Texas Youth Commission, on request, shall provide to the parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative of a child who is the subject of reported abuse or neglect, or to the child if the child is at least 18 years of age, information concerning the reported abuse or neglect that would otherwise be confidential under this section. The investigating agency shall withhold information under this subsection if the parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative of the child requesting the information is alleged to have committed the abuse or neglect.

(l) Before a child or a parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative of a child may inspect or copy a record or file concerning the child under Subsection (k), the custodian of the record or file must redact:

(1) any personally identifiable information about a victim or witness under 18 years of age unless that victim or witness is:

(A) the child who is the subject of the report; or

(B) another child of the parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative requesting the information;

(2) any information that is excepted from required disclosure under [the Act], or other law; and

(3) the identity of the person who made the report.

Fam. Code § 261.201(a), (k), (l). You state the submitted report was used or developed in an investigation of alleged or suspected child abuse. See id. § 261.001(1)(E) (definition of child abuse includes sexual assault under Penal Code section 22.011); see also Penal Code § 22.011(c)(1) (defining “child” for purposes of Penal Code section 22.011 as person under 17 years of age). Based on your representations and our review, we find the submitted report is generally confidential under section 261.201 of the Family Code. We note, however, the requestor is the parent of the child victim listed in the report, and the parent is not alleged to have committed the suspected abuse or neglect. In this instance, the city may not use section 261.201(a) to withhold this report from this requestor. Id. § 261.201(k). However, section 261.201(1)(1) of the Family Code provides that the identifying information of a child witness other than the requestor's child is confidential. Id. § 261.201(1)(1). Section 261.201(1)(3) states the identity of the reporting party must be withheld. Id. § 261.201(1)(3). Further, section 261.201(1)(2) states any information that is excepted from required disclosure under the Act or other law may still be withheld from disclosure. Id. § 261.201(1)(2). You assert portions of the submitted information are confidential under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 58.007 of the Family Code and common-law privacy. Therefore, we will address these arguments against release of the submitted report.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code also encompasses information protected by section 58.007 of the Family Code. Juvenile law enforcement records relating to conduct that occurred on or after September 1, 1997, are confidential under section 58.007(c), which reads as follows:

(c) Except as provided by Subsection (d), law enforcement records and files concerning a child and information stored, by electronic means or otherwise, concerning the child from which a record or file could be generated may not be disclosed to the public and shall be:

- (1) if maintained on paper or microfilm, kept separate from adult files and records;
- (2) if maintained electronically in the same computer system as records or files relating to adults, be accessible under controls that are separate and distinct from controls to access electronic data concerning adults; and
- (3) maintained on a local basis only and not sent to a central state or federal depository, except as provided by Subchapters B, D, and E.

Fam. Code § 58.007(c). For purposes of section 58.007(c), "child" means a person who is ten years of age or older and under seventeen years of age. See id. § 51.02(2). The information at issue involves delinquent conduct that occurred after September 1, 1997. See id. § 51.03 (defining "delinquent conduct" for purposes of Fam. Code § 58.007). However, we are unable to determine the age of one of the offenders at issue. Accordingly, we must rule conditionally. It does not appear any of the exceptions in section 58.007 apply to the submitted information. Thus, if the submitted information constitutes a record of a juvenile engaged in delinquent conduct who was ten years of age or older and under seventeen years of age at the time of the commission of the crime, the submitted information is confidential pursuant to section 58.007(c) of the Family Code and must be withheld in its entirety under section 552.101 of the Government Code. However, if the submitted information pertains to an offender who was not ten years of age or older and under seventeen years of age at the time of the commission of the crime, the submitted information is not confidential pursuant to section 58.007(c) and may not be withheld from this requestor under section 552.101 on that basis. In that instance, we will consider your remaining argument against disclosure of the submitted report.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code also encompasses the doctrine of common-law privacy, which protects information that is (1) highly intimate or embarrassing, the publication of which would be highly objectionable to a reasonable person and (2) not of legitimate concern to the public. Indus. Found. v. Tex. Indus. Accident Bd., 540 S.W.2d 668, 685 (Tex. 1976). To demonstrate the applicability of common-law privacy, both prongs of this test must be demonstrated. See id. at 681-82. The types of information considered intimate and embarrassing by the Texas Supreme Court in Industrial Foundation included information relating to sexual assault, pregnancy, mental or physical abuse in the workplace, illegitimate children, psychiatric treatment of mental disorders, attempted suicide, and injuries to sexual organs. Id. at 683. The courts and this office have recognized victims of sexual assault have certain common-law privacy interests. See 540 S.W.2d 668; see also Open Records Decision Nos. 440 (1986), 393 (1983), 339 (1982). However, as previously noted, the requestor is a parent of the minor child whose privacy interests are at issue. See Gov't Code § 552.023(a) ("person's authorized representative has special right of access, beyond right of general public, to information held by governmental body that relates to person and that is protected from public disclosure by laws intended to protect that person's privacy interests"); Open Records Decision No. 481 at 4 (1987) (privacy theories not implicated when individual requests information concerning himself). Thus, the requestor has a right of access to information pertaining to her child that would otherwise be confidential under common-law privacy. Accordingly, none of the submitted information may be withheld from this requestor under section 552.101 on the basis of common-law privacy.

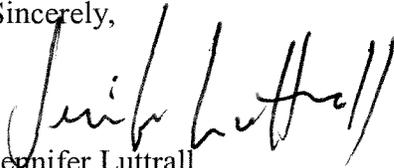

As previously noted, section 261.201(1)(1) of the Family Code provides that the identifying information of a child witness other than the requestor's child is confidential. Id. § 261.201(1)(1). We note several of the individuals listed in the submitted report are child witnesses who are not the requestor's child. Accordingly, the city must withhold the identifying information of these child witnesses, which we have marked, under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 261.201(1)(1). Further, section 261.201(1)(3) states the identity of the reporting party must be withheld from disclosure. Id. § 261.201(1)(3). Thus, the city must withhold the identity of the reporting party, which we have marked, under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 261.201(1)(3) of the Family Code. The city must release the remaining information to this requestor pursuant to section 261.201(k) of the Family Code.

In summary, if the submitted information constitutes a record of a juvenile engaged in delinquent conduct who was ten years of age or older and under seventeen years of age at the time of the commission of the crime, the city must withhold the submitted information in its entirety under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 58.007(c) of the Family Code. If the submitted information pertains to an offender who was not ten years of age or older and under seventeen years of age at the time of the commission of the crime, then the city must withhold the information we have marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 261.201(1)(1) and section 261.201(1)(3) of the Family Code. The city must release the remaining information pursuant to section 261.201(k) of the Family Code.<sup>1</sup>

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
