Dear Mr. Wallach:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 445667 (Fort Worth PIR No. W013332).

The City of Fort Worth (the "city") received a request for reports pertaining to a specified address during a specified time period. You state the city has redacted portions of the submitted information relating to a 9-1-1 caller pursuant to Open Records Letter Nos. 2011-15641 (2011) and 2011-15956 (2011).¹ You claim a portion of the remaining submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This office has found some kinds of medical information or information indicating disabilities or specific illnesses are excepted from required public disclosure under common-law privacy. See Open Records Decision Nos. 470 (1987) (illness from severe emotional and job-related stress), 455 (1987) (prescription drugs, illnesses, operations, and physical handicaps). Upon review, we find the information you have marked is highly intimate or embarrassing and not of legitimate public concern. Thus, we determine the city must withhold the marked information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy. As you raise no other exceptions, the remaining information at issue must be released.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.
