

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

December 29, 2011

Ms. LeAnn M. Quinn
City Secretary
City of Cedar Park
600 North Bell Boulevard
Cedar Park, Texas 78613

OR2011-19166

Dear Ms. Quinn:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 440730 (Cedar Park Reference No. 12-029).

The City of Cedar Park (the "city") received a request for the full police report pertaining to a specified incident. You state the city will make available to the requestor the basic information in the requested report. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.108 of the Government Code. You also state the city has redacted driver's license numbers from the responsive information pursuant to section 552.130(c) of the Government Code,¹ and social security numbers pursuant to section

¹ Section 552.130(c) of the Government Code authorizes a governmental body to redact from the requested information it discloses, without the necessity of requesting a decision from this office, a motor vehicle operator's or driver's license or permit issued by an agency of this state, or another state or country, and a personal identification document issued by an agency of this state, or another state or country, or a local agency authorized to issue an identification document. See Gov't Code § 552.130(c) (governmental body may redact information described by subsections 552.130(a)(1) and (3) from any information the governmental body discloses without necessity of requesting decision from attorney general); see id. §§ 552.130(d) (entitling requestor to appeal governmental body's decision to withhold information pursuant to section 552.130(c) to attorney general); 130(e) (requiring governmental body that withholds information pursuant to section 552.130(c) to provide notice to requestor).

552.147(b).² We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

You raise section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code for Exhibit C. Section 552.108(a)(1) excepts from disclosure “[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime . . . if . . . release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime[.]” Gov’t Code § 552.108(a)(1). Generally, a governmental body claiming section 552.108(a)(1) must reasonably explain how and why the release of the requested information would interfere with law enforcement. See id. §§ 552.108(a)(1), .301(e)(1)(A); see also Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977). You state Exhibit C relates to a criminal case that is pending prosecution. Based upon your representation, we conclude the release of Exhibit C would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. See Houston Chronicle Publ’g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975) (court delineates law enforcement interests that are present in active cases), writ ref’d n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976). Thus, the city may withhold Exhibit C under section 552.108(a)(1).

You claim some of the information in Exhibit B consists of confidential criminal history record information (“CHRI”). Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure “information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision.” Gov’t Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses laws that make CHRI confidential. CHRI generated by the National Crime Information Center or by the Texas Crime Information Center is confidential under federal and state law. Title 28, part 20 of the Code of Federal Regulations governs the release of CHRI that states obtain from the federal government or other states. Open Records Decision No. 565 at 7 (1990). The federal regulations allow each state to follow its individual law with respect to CHRI it generates. Id. Section 411.083 of the Government Code deems confidential CHRI the Department of Public Safety (“DPS”) maintains, except DPS may disseminate this information as provided in chapter 411, subchapter F of the Government Code. See Gov’t Code § 411.083. Sections 411.083(b)(1) and 411.089(a) authorize a criminal justice agency to obtain CHRI; however, a criminal justice agency may not release CHRI except to another criminal justice agency for a criminal justice purpose. Id. § 411.089(b)(1). Other entities specified in chapter 411 of the Government Code are entitled to obtain CHRI from DPS or another criminal justice agency; however, those entities may not release CHRI except as provided by chapter 411. See generally id. §§ 411.090-.127. Similarly, any CHRI obtained from DPS or any other criminal justice agency must be withheld under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with Government Code chapter 411, subchapter F.

²Section 552.147(b) of the Government Code authorizes a governmental body to redact a living person’s social security number from public release without the necessity of requesting a decision from this office. See Gov’t Code § 552.147. We note the city does not seek to withhold the requestor’s social security number; rather, the city only seeks to redact a social security number under section 552.147(b) to which the requestor does not have a right of access. Thus, we agree the city may withhold the marked social security number under section 552.147.

Upon review, we find the information you have marked in Exhibit B does not consist of CHRI for purposes of chapter 411 or federal law, and thus, it may not be withheld under section 552.101 on that basis.

In summary, the city may withhold Exhibit C under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code. The remaining information must be released.³

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
