OR2012-00215

Dear Ms. Brown:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 442122 (ORR # CARA101811).

The Plano Police Department (the "department") received a request for a specified incident report. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This section encompasses information protected by other statutes, such as section 261.201 of the Family Code, which provides:

(a) Except as provided by Section 261.203, the following information is confidential, is not subject to public release under [the Act], and may be disclosed only for purposes consistent with this code and applicable federal or state law or under rules adopted by an investigating agency:

(1) a report of alleged or suspected abuse or neglect made under this chapter and the identity of the person making the report; and

(2) except as otherwise provided in this section, the files, reports, records, communications, audiotapes, videotapes, and working papers used or developed in an investigation under this chapter or in providing services as a result of an investigation.

(k) Notwithstanding Subsection (a), an investigating agency, other than the [Texas Department of Family and Protective Services] or the Texas Youth Commission, on request, shall provide to the parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative of a child who is the subject of reported abuse or neglect, or to the child if the child is at least 18 years of age, information concerning the reported abuse or neglect that would otherwise be confidential under this section. The investigating agency shall withhold information under this subsection if the parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative of the child requesting the information is alleged to have committed the abuse or neglect.

(l) Before a child or a parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative of a child may inspect or copy a record or file concerning the child under Subsection (k), the custodian of the record or file must redact:

(1) any personally identifiable information about a victim or witness under 18 years of age unless that victim or witness is:

(A) the child who is the subject of the report; or

(B) another child of the parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative requesting the information;

(2) any information that is excepted from required disclosure under [the Act], or other law; and

(3) the identity of the person who made the report.

Fam. Code § 261.201(a), (k), (l). Upon review, we agree the submitted information pertains to an investigation of alleged or suspected child abuse and is within the scope of section 261.201 of the Family Code. See id. § 261.001(1) (defining “abuse” for purposes of chapter 261 of the Family Code); Penal Code § 22.04(c) (defining “child” for purposes of injury to a child as a person 14 years of age or younger). However, as you acknowledge, the requestor is the mother of the child victims listed in the submitted report and is not the individual alleged to have committed the suspected abuse. See Fam. Code § 261.201(k). Thus, the department may not use section 261.201(a) to withhold the submitted information from this requestor. Id. Section 261.201(l)(3), however, provides that the identity of the reporting party must be withheld. Id. § 261.201(l)(3). Thus, the department must withhold the reporting party’s identity, which we have marked, under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 261.201(l)(3) of the Family Code. In addition, section 261.201(1)(2) provides that any information that is excepted from required disclosure under the Act or other law may be withheld from disclosure. Id. § 261.201(1)(2). We note the remaining information contains driver's license information subject to section 552.130 of the Government Code.<sup>1</sup>

Section 552.130 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure information that relates to a motor vehicle operator's or driver's license issued by an agency of this state or another state or country. Gov't Code § 552.130(a)(1). Thus, the department must withhold the driver's license information we have marked under section 552.130 of the Government Code.

In summary, the department must withhold the reporting party's identity, which we have marked, under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 261.201(1)(3) of the Family Code. The department must also withhold the driver's license information we have marked under section 552.130 of the Government Code. The remaining information must be released to this requestor.<sup>2</sup>
