OR2012-01251

Dear Mr. Noga:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the “Act”), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 443320 (ORR No. 10607).

The City of Coppell (the “city”), which you represent, received a request for information pertaining to police activity at a specified address from a specified period of time. You state you are releasing some of the requested information to the requestor with driver’s license numbers redacted pursuant section 552.130(c) of the Government Code and social security numbers redacted pursuant to section 552.147(b) of the Government Code.<sup>1</sup> You claim that the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure “[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime . . . if . . . release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime[.]” Gov’t Code § 552.108(a)(1). A governmental that claims an exception to disclosure under section 552.108 must reasonably explain how and why this exception is applicable to the information at issue. See id. §§ 552.108(a)(1), .301(e)(1)(A); see also Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977). You state the submitted information relates to a pending criminal prosecution. Based on your representations and our review of the information at issue, we conclude the release of the submitted information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. See Houston Chronicle Publ'g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975), writ ref'd n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976) (court delineates law enforcement interests that are present in active cases). We note, and you acknowledge, however, that the submitted information includes a citation. Because a copy of the citation was provided to the individual who was cited, we find that release of the citation will not interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. Therefore, the city may not withhold the citation, which we have marked, under section 552.108(a)(1).

<sup>1</sup>Section 552.130(c) of the Government Code authorizes a governmental body to redact, without the necessity of requesting a decision from this office, a motor vehicle operator’s or driver’s license or permit issued by an agency of this state, or another state or country, and a personal identification document issued by an agency of this state, or another state or country, or a local agency authorized to issue an identification document. Gov’t Code § 552.130(c); see id. § 552.130(d) (entitling requestor to appeal governmental body’s decision to withhold information pursuant to section 552.130(c) to attorney general), .130(e) (requiring governmental body that withholds information pursuant to section 552.130(c) to provide notice to requestor). Section 552.147(b) of the Government Code authorizes a governmental body to redact a living person’s social security number from public release without the necessity of requesting a decision from this office under the Act. Id. § 552.147(b).

We also note, and you acknowledge, section 552.108 does not except from disclosure “basic information about an arrested person, an arrest, or a crime.” Gov’t Code § 552.108(c). Section 552.108(c) refers to the basic front-page information held to be public in Houston Chronicle. See 531 S.W.2d at 186-88; see also Open Records Decision No. 127 at 3-4 (1976) (summarizing types of information deemed public by Houston Chronicle). Thus, with the exception of basic information and the marked citation, which you state you have released, the city may withhold the submitted information under section 552.108(a)(1). As our ruling is dispositive, we need not address your remaining arguments against disclosure.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.oag.state.tx.us/open/index\_orl.php, or call the Office of the Attorney General’s Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Act must be directed to the Cost Rules Administrator of the Office of the Attorney General, toll free, at (888) 672-6787.

Sincerely,
