

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

January 26, 2012

Ms. Leticia D. McGowan
School Attorney
Dallas Independent School District
3700 Ross Avenue
Dallas, Texas 75204

OR2012-01315

Dear Ms. McGowan:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 443604 (ORR# 10725).

The Dallas Independent School District (the "district") received a request for fifteen categories of information related to the requestor's client. You state some information has been released to the requestor. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure pursuant to sections 552.101 and 552.135 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information. We have also received and considered comments submitted by the requestor. See Gov't Code § 552.304 (interested party may submit written comments regarding availability of requested information).

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses section 261.201(a) of the Family Code, which provides in part:

(a) [T]he following information is confidential, is not subject to public release under Chapter 552, Government Code, and may be disclosed only for purposes consistent with this code and applicable federal or state law or under rules adopted by an investigating agency:

- (1) a report of alleged or suspected abuse or neglect made under this chapter and the identity of the person making the report; and
- (2) except as otherwise provided in this section, the files, reports, records, communications, audiotapes, videotapes, and working papers used or developed in an investigation under this chapter or in providing services as a result of an investigation.

Fam. Code § 261.201(a). You claim the submitted information is confidential under section 261.201. We note the district is not an agency authorized to conduct a chapter 261 investigation. See id. § 261.103 (listing agencies that may conduct child abuse investigations). However, you state the district has on staff an employee who is shared with the Texas Department of Family and Protective Services (“DFPS”) to receive and investigate child abuse claims. Furthermore, you state the information at issue was used by the Dallas Police Department, DFPS, or district police officers, who are commissioned peace officers with the authority to investigate child abuse claims, to investigate such claims. Thus, based on your representations and our review, we find the submitted information was used or developed by these investigating agencies in a child abuse investigation. See id. §§ 261.001(1) (defining “abuse” for purposes of Family Code chapter 261), 101.003(a) (defining “child” for purposes of section 261.201 as “person under 18 years of age who is not and has not been married or who has not had the disabilities of minority removed for general purposes”). Therefore, we find the submitted information is within the scope of section 261.201 of the Family Code. You have not indicated any of the investigating entities have adopted rules that govern the release of this type of information in this instance; therefore, we assume no such regulations exist. Given that assumption, the district must withhold the submitted information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 261.201 of the Family Code.¹ See Open Records Decision No. 440 at 2 (1986) (predecessor statute).

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.oag.state.tx.us/open/index_orl.php, or call the Office of the Attorney General’s Open Government Hotline, toll free, ¹As our ruling is dispositive, we need not address your remaining argument against disclosure.

at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Act must be directed to the Cost Rules Administrator of the Office of the Attorney General, toll free, at (888) 672-6787.

Sincerely,
