OR2012-02045

Dear Ms. White:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 448888.

The City of Southlake (the "city"), which you represent, received two requests for information related to a specified accident. You claim that the requested information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Initially, we note the submitted information includes documents filed with a court, which are expressly public under section 552.022(a)(17) of the Government Code. See Gov't Code § 552.022(a)(17). Such information must be released unless it is expressly confidential under the Act or "other law." You claim the court-filed documents are excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 of the Government Code. However, section 552.108 is a discretionary exception that protects a governmental body's interests and does not make information confidential for purposes of section 552.022(a)(17). See Open Records Decision Nos. 665 at 2 n.5 (2000) (discretionary exceptions generally), 586 (1991) (governmental body may waive section 552.108). Therefore, the city may not withhold the court-filed documents, which we have marked, under section 552.108 of the Government Code. As you raise no further exceptions for the court-filed documents, they must be released.

You claim the remaining information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 of the Government Code, which excepts "[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime . . . if . . . release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime[.]” Gov’t Code § 552.108(a)(1). Generally, a governmental body claiming section 552.108(a)(1) must reasonably explain how and why the release of the requested information would interfere with law enforcement. See id. §§ 552.108(a)(1), .301(e)(1)(A); see also Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977).

We note that the remaining information includes a DIC-24 statutory warning form and a DIC-25 notice of suspension form. Because copies of these documents, which we have marked, have been provided to the arrestee, we find that their release will not interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. See Gov’t Code § 552.108(a)(1). Therefore, the city may not withhold these documents under section 552.108(a)(1).

You state that the remaining information at issue relates to an open and pending criminal prosecution. Based upon your representation and our review, we conclude that the release of the remaining information at issue would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. See Houston Chronicle Publ’g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975) (court delineates law enforcement interests that are present in active cases), writ ref’d n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976). Thus, section 552.108(a)(1) is applicable to the remaining information at issue.

However, basic information about an arrested person, an arrest, or a crime is not excepted from disclosure under section 552.108. Gov’t Code § 552.108(c). Such basic information refers to the information held to be public in Houston Chronicle. See 531 S.W.2d at 186-8; see also Open Records Decision No. 127 (1976) (summarizing types of information deemed public by Houston Chronicle). Thus, with the exception of the statutory warning, notice of suspension, and basic information, the city may withhold the remaining information under section 552.108(a)(1).

We note that the statutory warning and the notice of suspension both contain information that is subject to section 552.130 of the Government Code.¹ Section 552.130 provides that information relating to a motor vehicle operator’s license or driver’s license issued by an agency of this state, another state, or country is excepted from public release. Gov’t Code § 552.130(a)(1). Upon review, we find the city must withhold the driver’s license number we have marked in the statutory warning and the notice of suspension under section 552.130 of the Government Code.

In summary, the city must release the information we have marked under section 552.022(a)(17) of the Government Code. With the exception of the statutory warning, notice of suspension, and basic information, the city may withhold the remaining information under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code. Basic offense and arrest information must be released under section 552.108(c) of the Government Code. In releasing the statutory warning and the notice of suspension, the city must withhold the driver's license number we have marked under section 552.130 of the Government Code.
