Dear Ms. Goins:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 449219 (DPS PIR #12-0131).

The Texas Department of Public Safety (the "department") received a request for twenty-seven categories of information related to a specified toxicology report and the policies and procedures for processing laboratory results. You state you have released some of the requested information. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Initially, we note that the information you seek to withhold includes the results of an analysis of a blood specimen. Section 724.018 of the Transportation Code provides that, on the request of the person who has given a specimen at the request of a peace officer, full information concerning the analysis of the specimen must be made available to that person or the person's attorney. Transp. Code § 724.018. We find that "full information" under section 724.018 refers to the results of the analysis of the specimen, and includes the "Alcohol Analysis Worksheet," the "Toxicology/Blood Alcohol Kit Laboratory Submission Form," and the submitted charts and graphs. As a general rule, the exceptions to disclosure found in the Act do not apply to information that other statutes make public. See Open Records Decision Nos. 623 at 3 (1994), 525 at 3 (1989). Here, the requestor may be an authorized representative of the person who provided the blood sample. However, as we are unable to make this determination based on our review of the information, we must rule conditionally. If the department determines the requestor is the authorized representative of the person who provided the specimen, then the requestor has a right of access to full information concerning the analysis of the specimen under section 724.018 of the Transportation Code. However, if the department determines the requestor is not the authorized representative of the person who provided the sample, then the requestor does not have a right of access to the information at issue under section 724.018 of the Transportation Code, and we will address your claim under section 552.108 of the Government Code.

Section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure “[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime . . . if . . . release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime[.]” Gov’t Code § 552.108(a)(1). A governmental body must reasonably explain how and why section 552.108 is applicable to the information at issue. See id. § 552.301(e)(1)(A); Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977). You state the submitted information is related to an ongoing criminal investigation. Based on your representation, we agree release of the submitted information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. See Houston Chronicle Publ’g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App. — Houston [14th Dist.] 1975) (court delineates law enforcement interests that are present in active cases), writ ref’d n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976). Thus, the department may withhold the submitted information under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.

In summary, if the department determines the requestor is the authorized representative of the person who provided the blood specimen, then the requestor has a right of access to full information concerning the analysis of the specimen under section 724.018 of the Transportation Code. If the department determines the requestor is not an authorized representative of the person who provided the specimen, the department may withhold the submitted information under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.oag.state.tx.us/open/index\_orl.php, or call the Office of the Attorney General’s Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839.
