OR2012-04672

Dear Ms. Towe:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 449332.

The Texas Department of Criminal Justice (the "department") received a request for a copy of the results of the requestor's last urinalysis test. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.134 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses information protected by other statutes, such as section 508.313 of the Government Code. This section provides in part:

(a) All information obtained and maintained [by the department], including a victim protest letter or other correspondence, a victim impact statement, a list of inmates eligible for release on parole, and an arrest record of an inmate, is confidential and privileged if the information relates to:

(1) an inmate of the institutional division [of the department] subject to release on parole, release to mandatory supervision, or executive clemency;

(2) a releasee; or

(3) a person directly identified in any proposed plan of release for an inmate.

Id. § 508.313(a); see id. § 508.001(9) (“releasee” means a person released on parole or to mandatory supervision). You state the submitted information consists of a parole record that is maintained by the department’s parole division and relates to a releasee. Based on your representations and our review, we find this information relates to a releasee and is subject to section 508.313. The requestor in this instance is not authorized to obtain this information under section 508.313(c). See id. § 508.313(c). Further, this information is not made public under chapter 62 of the Code of Criminal Procedure or section 552.029 of the Government Code. See id. § 508.313(e), (f). Accordingly, the department must withhold the submitted information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 508.313 of the Government Code.¹

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.oag.state.tx.us/open/index_orl.php, or call the Office of the Attorney General’s Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6339. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Act must be directed to the Cost Rules Administrator of the Office of the Attorney General, toll free at (888) 672-6787.

Sincerely,

Sean Nottingham
Assistant Attorney General
Open Records Division
