

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

April 17, 2012

Ms. Leticia D. McGowan
School Attorney
Dallas Independent School District
3700 Ross Avenue
Dallas, Texas 75204

OR2012-05475

Dear Ms. McGowan:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 450982.

The Dallas Independent School District (the "district") received a request for a specified investigation. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.135 of the Government Code. We have considered the claimed exceptions and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This exception encompasses information made confidential by other statutes, such as section 261.201 of the Family Code. Section 261.201 provides, in relevant part:

- (a) [T]he following information is confidential, is not subject to public release under Chapter 552, Government Code, and may be disclosed only for purposes consistent with this code and applicable federal or state law or under rules adopted by an investigating agency:

(1) a report of alleged or suspected abuse or neglect made under this chapter and the identity of the person making the report; and

(2) except as otherwise provided in this section, the files, reports, records, communications, audiotapes, videotapes, and working papers used or developed in an investigation under this chapter or in providing services as a result of an investigation.

Fam. Code § 261.201(a). You claim the submitted information is confidential under section 261.201. We note the district is not an agency authorized to conduct a chapter 261 investigation. See id. § 261.103 (listing agencies that may conduct child abuse investigations). However, you state the district has on staff an employee who is shared with the Texas Department of Family and Protective Services (“DFPS”) to receive and investigate child abuse claims. Furthermore, you state the information at issue was used to investigate such claims by the Dallas Police Department, DFPS, or district police officers, who are commissioned peace officers with the authority to investigate child abuse claims. Thus, based on your representations and our review, we find the submitted information was used or developed by one or more of these investigating agencies in a child abuse investigation. See id. §§ 261.001(1) (defining “abuse” for purposes of Family Code chapter 261), 101.003(a) (defining “child” for purposes of section 261.201 as “person under 18 years of age who is not and has not been married or who has not had the disabilities of minority removed for general purposes”). Therefore, we find the submitted information is within the scope of section 261.201 of the Family Code. You have not indicated any of the investigating entities have adopted rules that govern the release of this type of information in this instance; therefore, we assume no such regulations exist. Given that assumption, the district must withhold the submitted information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 261.201 of the Family Code.¹

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.
