

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

April 18, 2012

Ms. Michelle T. Rangel
Assistant County Attorney
Fort Bend County
301 Jackson Street, Suite 728
Richmond, Texas 77469

OR2012-05502

Dear Ms. Rangel:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 450877.

The Fort Bend County Sheriff's Office (the "sheriff's office") received two requests for information pertaining to police calls at a specified address from May 2011 to the date of the request and at a different address from July 2008 to September 2009. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted representative sample of information.¹

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses information made confidential by other statutes, including section 261.201 of the Family Code, which provides in relevant part:

¹We assume that the representative sample of records submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). This open records letter does not reach, and therefore does not authorize the withholding of, any other requested records to the extent that those records contain substantially different types of information than that submitted to this office.

(a) [T]he following information is confidential, is not subject to public release under [the Act] and may be disclosed only for purposes consistent with this code and applicable federal or state law or under rules adopted by an investigating agency:

(1) a report of alleged or suspected abuse or neglect made under this chapter and the identity of the person making the report; and

(2) except as otherwise provided in this section, the files, reports, records, communications, audiotapes, videotapes, and working papers used or developed in an investigation under this chapter or in providing services as a result of an investigation.

(k) Notwithstanding Subsection (a), an investigating agency, other than the [Texas Department of Family and Protective Services] or the Texas Youth Commission, on request, shall provide to the parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative of a child who is the subject of reported abuse or neglect, or to the child if the child is at least 18 years of age, information concerning the reported abuse or neglect that would otherwise be confidential under this section. The investigating agency shall withhold information under this subsection if the parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative of the child requesting the information is alleged to have committed the abuse or neglect.

(l) Before a child or a parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative of a child may inspect or copy a record or file concerning the child under Subsection (k), the custodian of the record or file must redact:

(2) any information that is excepted from required disclosure under [the Act], or other law; and

(3) the identity of the person who made the report.

Fam. Code § 261.201(a), (k), (l)(2)-(3). Upon review, we find incident report number 11-13630 was used or developed in the sheriff's office's investigation of alleged or suspected child abuse. See id. § 261.001(1) (defining "abuse" for purposes of chapter 261 of the Family Code); see also Penal Code § 22.04(c) (defining "child" for purposes of injury to a child as a person 14 years of age or younger). Accordingly, we determine the submitted report is within the scope of section 261.201 of the Family Code. However, the requestor is a parent of the child victim listed in the report and is not alleged to have committed the alleged or suspected abuse. Therefore, the submitted incident report may not be withheld from this requestor on the basis of section 261.201(a). See Fam. Code § 261.201(k). However, we note section 261.201(l)(3) provides that before a parent can copy and inspect a record of a child under section 261.201(k), the identity of the party who made the report must be redacted. Id. § 261.201(l)(3). Further, section 261.201(l)(2) states any information excepted from required disclosure under the Act or other law must be withheld from disclosure. Id. § 261.201(l)(2). You assert incident report number 11-13630 is excepted from public disclosure under section 552.108 of the Government Code. Accordingly, we address this argument for the incident report number 11-13630.

Section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure “[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime . . . if . . . release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime[.]” Gov’t Code § 552.108(a)(1). A governmental body must reasonably explain how and why section 552.108 is applicable to the information at issue. See id. § 552.301(e)(1)(A); Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977). You state incident report number 11-13630 relates to an ongoing prosecution. Based on your representation and our review, we conclude release of information pertaining to incident report number 11-13630 would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of a crime. See Houston Chronicle Publ’g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975) (court delineates law enforcement interests that are present in active cases), writ ref’d per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976). Therefore, section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code is applicable to the information pertaining to incident report number 11-13630.

Section 552.108(a)(2) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure information concerning an investigation that concluded in a result other than conviction or deferred adjudication. Gov’t Code § 552.108(a)(2). A governmental body claiming section 552.108(a)(2) must demonstrate the requested information relates to a criminal investigation that has concluded in a final result other than a conviction or deferred adjudication. See id. § 552.301(e) (governmental body must provide comments explaining why exceptions raised should apply to information requested). You state incident report number 08-30616 relates to a concluded criminal investigation that did not result in a conviction or deferred adjudication. Thus, section 552.108(a)(2) is applicable to the information relating to incident report number 08-30616.

We note section 552.108 does not except from disclosure “basic information about an arrested person, an arrest, or a crime.” Id. § 552.108(c). Section 552.108(c) refers to the basic front-page information held to be public in Houston Chronicle, and includes the identity of the complainant and a detailed description of the offense. See 531 S.W.2d at 186-88; see also Open Records Decision No. 127 (1976) (summarizing types of information deemed public by Houston Chronicle). Accordingly, with the exception of basic information, the sheriff's office may withhold the information pertaining to incident report number 11-13630 under section 552.108(a)(1) and the information relating to incident report number 08-30616 under section 552.108(a)(2).² As noted above, however, the identity of the party who made the report of alleged or suspected abuse must be redacted. See Fam. Code § 261.201(1)(3). Thus, in releasing basic information from incident report number 11-13630, the sheriff's office must withhold the reporting party's identity, which we have marked, under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 261.201(1)(3) of the Family Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
