

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

May 7, 2012

Chief James S. Kelley
City of Sweetwater Police Department
P.O. Box 450
Sweetwater, Texas 79556

OR2012-06651

Dear Chief Kelley:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the “Act”), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 452895.

The Sweetwater Police Department (the “department”) received a request for a specific incident report. You claim that the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.108, 552.132, and 552.1325 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure “[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime . . . if . . . release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime[.]” Gov’t Code § 552.108(a)(1). A governmental body claiming section 552.108 must reasonably explain how and why the release of the requested information would interfere with law enforcement. See id. §§ 552.108(a)(1), .301(e)(1)(A); see also Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977). You state the submitted information pertains to a pending criminal investigation. Based on this representation and our review, we determine release of this information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. See Houston Chronicle Publ’g Co. v.

City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975) (court delineates law enforcement interests that are present in active cases), writ ref'd n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976).

As you acknowledge, section 552.108 does not except from disclosure “basic information about an arrested person, an arrest, or a crime.” Gov’t Code § 552.108(c). Basic information refers to the information held to be public in Houston Chronicle. See 531 S.W.2d at 186-88; Open Records Decision No. 127 (1976) (summarizing the types of information considered to be basic information). Thus, with the exception of basic front page information, the department may withhold the submitted information under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.

Next, you assert some of the remaining information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.132 of the Government Code, which provides in relevant part:

(b) The following information held by the crime victim’s compensation division of the attorney general’s office is confidential:

(1) the name, social security number, address, or telephone number of a crime victim or claimant; or

(2) any other information the disclosure of which would identify or tend to identify the crime victim or claimant.

(d) An employee of a governmental body who is also a victim under Subchapter B, Chapter 56, Code of Criminal Procedure, regardless of whether the employee has filed an application for compensation under that subchapter, may elect whether to allow public access to information held by the attorney general’s office or other governmental body that would identify or tend to identify the victim, including a photograph or other visual representation of the victim.

Gov’t Code § 552.132(b), (d). The remaining information is held by the department, not the crime victim’s compensation division of this office; therefore, section 552.132(b) is not applicable to this information. Additionally, you provide no representation the victim is an employee of the department who elected in accordance with section 552.132(d). Accordingly, we conclude the department may not withhold any portion of the remaining information under section 552.132 of the Government Code.

Section 552.1325 of the Government Code provides:

(a) In this section:

(1) “Crime victim” means a person who is a victim as defined by Article 56.32, Code of Criminal Procedure.

(2) “Victim impact statement” means a victim impact statement under Article 56.03, Code of Criminal Procedure.

(b) The following information that is held by a governmental body or filed with a court and that is contained in a victim impact statement or was submitted for purposes of preparing a victim impact statement is confidential:

(1) the name, social security number, address, and telephone number of a crime victim; and

(2) any other information the disclosure of which would identify or tend to identify the crime victim.

Id. § 552.1325. The definition of a victim under article 56.32 of the Code of Criminal Procedure includes an individual who suffers physical or mental harm as a result of criminally injurious conduct. Crim. Proc. Code § 56.32(a)(10), (11). Upon review, we find the remaining information does not include a victim impact statement for purposes of section 552.1325, nor have you explained that any of the information at issue was submitted to the department for the purposes of preparing a victim impact statement. Therefore, the department may not withhold any of the remaining information under section 552.1325 of the Government Code.

In summary, with the exception of basic information, which must be released, the department may withhold the submitted information under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
