Mr. Charles H. Weir
Assistant City Attorney

OR2012-06808

Dear Mr. Weir:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the “Act”), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 453040 (COSA File No. W005975).

The San Antonio Police Department (the “department”) received a request for information related to a specified investigation. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code.<sup>1</sup> We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information. We have also received and considered comments from the requestor. See Gov’t Code § 552.304 (providing that interested party may submit comments stating why information should or should not be released).

Initially, we note the department did not fully comply with section 552.301 of the Government Code. Section 552.301(b) requires a governmental body requesting an open records ruling from this office to “ask for the attorney general’s decision and state the exceptions that apply within a reasonable time but not later than the tenth business-day after the date of receiving the written request.” Id. § 552.301(b). We note the department did not raise section 552.101 of the Government Code until after the ten-business-day deadline had passed. Generally, if a governmental body fails to timely raise an exception, that exception is waived. See generally id. § 552.302; Open Records Decision No. 663 at 5 (1999) (untimely request for decision resulted in waiver of discretionary exceptions). Because section 552.101 is a mandatory exception to disclosure and may not be waived, we will consider your claim under section 552.101 for the submitted information. See Gov't Code §§ 552.007, .301, .302, .352; Open Records Decision No. 674 at 3 n.4 (2001) (mandatory exceptions).

<sup>1</sup>Although the department initially raised section 552.108 of the Government Code, the department has provided us with correspondence withdrawing its arguments under this section. Accordingly, we do not address the department’s arguments under section 552.108 of the Government Code.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure “information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision.” Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses information made confidential by other statutes, including section 261.201 of the Family Code, which provides in relevant part the following:

(a) [T]he following information is confidential, is not subject to public release under [the Act] and may be disclosed only for purposes consistent with this code and applicable federal or state law or under rules adopted by an investigating agency:

(1) a report of alleged or suspected abuse or neglect made under this chapter and the identity of the person making the report; and

(2) except as otherwise provided in this section, the files, reports, records, communications, audiotapes, videotapes, and working papers used or developed in an investigation under this chapter or in providing services as a result of an investigation.

Fam. Code § 261.201(a). Upon review, we find the submitted information relates to an investigation of suspected child abuse. See id. § 261.001(1)(E) (defining “abuse” for purposes of chapter 261 of the Family Code as including offense of aggravated sexual assault under section 22.021 of the Penal Code); see also Penal Code § 22.011 (defining “child” for purposes of sexual assault of a child as person under 17 years of age). As you do not indicate that the department has adopted a rule that governs the release of this type of information, we assume that no such rule exists. We therefore conclude the submitted information is confidential under section 261.201(a). Accordingly, the submitted information must be withheld in its entirety under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 261.201 of the Family Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.oag.state.tx.us/open/index\_orl.php, or call the Office of the Attorney General's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Act must be directed to the Cost Rules Administrator of the Office of the Attorney General, toll free at (888) 672-6787.

Sincerely,
