OR2012-07653

Dear Ms. Armstrong:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 457950 (ORR# 2012-04435).

The Dallas Police Department (the "department") received a request for information pertaining to service number 88380-Z. You claim some of the requested information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted representative sample of information.<sup>1</sup>

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This section encompasses information protected by other statutes, such as section 773.091 of the Health and Safety Code, which provides in part:

(b) Records of the identity, evaluation, or treatment of a patient by emergency medical services personnel or by a physician providing medical supervision that are created by the emergency medical services personnel or physician or maintained by an emergency medical services provider are confidential and privileged and may not be disclosed except as provided by this chapter.

<sup>1</sup>We assume the "representative sample" of records submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). This open records letter does not reach, and therefore does not authorize the withholding of, any other requested records to the extent those records contain substantially different types of information than that submitted to this office.

(g) The privilege of confidentiality under this section does not extend to information regarding the presence, nature of injury or illness, age, sex, occupation, and city of residence of a patient who is receiving emergency medical services.

Health & Safety Code § 773.091(b), (g). Thus, except for the information specified in section 773.091(g), emergency medical services (“EMS”) records are deemed confidential under section 773.091 and, therefore, may only be released in accordance with chapter 773 of the Health and Safety Code. See id. §§ 773.091-.093. Upon review, we find section 773.091 is applicable to the information you have marked. We note records that are confidential under section 773.091 may be disclosed to “any person who bears a written consent of the patient or other persons authorized to act on the patient’s behalf for the release of confidential information[.]” Id. §§ 773.092(e)(4), .093. Section 773.093 provides a consent for release of EMS records must be written and signed by the patient, authorized representative, or personal representative and must specify: (1) the information or records to be covered by the release; (2) the reasons or purpose for the release; and (3) the person to whom the information is to be released. Id. § 773.093(a). Although you also seek to withhold the marked EMS record under section 552.108 of the Government Code, a specific statutory right of access provision prevails over general exceptions to disclosure under the Act. See Open Records Decision No. 451 at 4 (1986) (specific statutory right of access provisions overcome general exceptions to disclosure under statutory predecessor to Act). Therefore, the department must withhold the marked EMS record under section 552.101 in conjunction with section 773.091, except as specified by section 773.091(g). We will consider your claim under section 552.108 of the Government Code for the remaining information, including the information subject to section 773.091(g). However, the department must release the EMS record on receipt of proper consent under section 773.093. Health & Safety Code §§ 773.092, .093.

Section 552.108 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure “[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime . . . if . . . release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime[.]” Gov’t Code § 552.108(a)(1). A governmental body claiming section 552.108 must reasonably explain how and why the release of the requested information would interfere with law enforcement. See id. §§ 552.108(a)(1), .301(e)(1)(A); see also Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977). You state the information at issue relates to a pending criminal case. Based on this representation and our review, we conclude release of the information you have marked would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. See Houston Chronicle Publ’g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975) (court delineates law enforcement interests that are present in active cases), writ ref’d n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976). Accordingly, the department may withhold the remaining information you have marked, including the information subject to section 773.091(g) of the Health and Safety Code, under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.

In summary, with the exception of the information subject to section 773.091(g) of the Health and Safety Code, the department must withhold the marked EMS record under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 773.091(b) of the Health and Safety Code if the department does not receive consent that complies with section 773.093 of the Health and Safety Code. If the department receives proper consent, the marked EMS record must be released in its entirety in accordance with chapter 773 of the Health and Safety Code. The department may withhold the remaining marked information, including the information subject to section 773.091(g), under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.
