Assistant City Attorney
City of San Antonio

OR2012-07868

Dear Mr. Weir:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 454491 (COSA File No. W006345).

The City of San Antonio (the "city") received a request for a specified report. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from public disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This section encompasses information protected by other statutes. Section 261.201(a) of the Family Code provides as follows:

[T]he following information is confidential, is not subject to public release under Chapter 552, Government Code, and may be disclosed only for purposes consistent with this code and applicable federal or state law or under rules adopted by an investigating agency:

- (1) a report of alleged or suspected abuse or neglect made under this chapter and the identity of the person making the report; and

(2) except as otherwise provided in this section, the files, reports, records, communications, audiotapes, videotapes, and working papers used or developed in an investigation under this chapter or in providing services as a result of an investigation.

Fam. Code § 261.201(a). Upon review, we agree the submitted information was used or developed by the city's police department in an investigation under chapter 261 of the Family Code. See id. § 261.001 (defining "abuse" for purposes of chapter 261 of the Family Code); see also Penal Code § 22.04(c) (defining "child" for purposes of injury to a child as a person 14 years of age or younger). Accordingly, we find this information is subject to chapter 261 of the Family Code. Thus, the submitted information is generally confidential pursuant to section 261.201.

The requestor, however, is a representative of the San Antonio Housing Authority. The requestor states the records will be used to determine lease violations and eviction proceedings. Section 1437d(q)(1)(A) of title 42 of the United States Code, the federal Housing Opportunity Program Extension Act of 1996, provides that "[n]otwithstanding any other provision of law, . . . the National Crime Information Center, police departments, and other law enforcement agencies shall, upon request, provide information to public housing agencies regarding the criminal conviction records of adult applicants for, or tenants of, covered housing assistance for purposes of applicant screening, lease enforcement, and eviction." 42 U.S.C. § 1437d(q)(1)(A). In Open Records Decision No. 655 (1997), this office concluded this federal statute authorizes local housing authorities to obtain the criminal history record information ("CHRI") of adult applicants and tenants. CHRI consists of "information collected about a person by a criminal justice agency that consists of identifiable descriptions and notations of arrests, detentions, indictments, informations, and other formal criminal charges and their dispositions." Gov't Code § 411.082(2). However, the federal law limits the purposes for which a public housing authority may request CHRI. It provides, among other things, that (1) public housing agencies may receive CHRI of adult applicants or tenants of public housing, and (2) CHRI may only be used for purposes of applicant screening, lease enforcement, and eviction. See 42 U.S.C. § 1437d(q)(1)(A); ORD 655 at 3-5. Section 1437d(q)(1)(A) states a housing authority shall be provided access to the CHRI "[n]otwithstanding any other provision of law." 42 U.S.C. § 1437d(q)(1)(A). Based on this language, we find section 1437d(q)(1)(A) prevails over section 261.201 of the Family Code, as well as section 552.108 of the Government Code. Cf. Equal Employment Opportunity Comm'n v. City of Orange, Texas, 905 F. Supp 381, 382 (E.D. Tex. 1995) (federal law prevails over inconsistent provision of state law). Thus, any CHRI of adult tenants of public housing that is contained within the submitted information must be released to this requestor in accordance with section 1437d(q)(1) of title 42 of the United States Code and Open Records Decision No. 655. See also 24 C.F.R. § 5.903 (describing public housing authorities' access to criminal records). The remaining information must be withheld under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 261.201 of the Family Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
