OR2012-09170

Dear Ms. Evans:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 456271 (GC No. 19545).

The Houston Police Department (the "department") received a request for information related to a specified automobile accident. You state the department does not have any records responsive to part of the request.<sup>1</sup> You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.103 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Initially, we note the submitted information contains a CR-3 accident report form completed pursuant to chapter 550 of the Transportation Code. See Transp. Code § 550.064 (officer's accident report). Section 550.065(b) of the Transportation Code states that except as provided by subsection (c) or (e), accident reports are privileged and for the confidential use of certain specified entities. Id. § 550.065(b). Section 550.065(c)(4) provides for the release of accident reports to a person who provides two of the following three pieces of information: (1) the date of the accident; (2) the name of any person involved in the accident; and (3) the specific location of the accident. Id. § 550.065(c)(4). Under this provision, a governmental entity is required to release a copy of an accident report to a person who provides two or more pieces of information specified by the statute. Id.

<sup>1</sup>The Act does not require a governmental body to release information that did not exist when a request for information was received or to prepare new information in response to a request. See Econ. Opportunities Dev. Corp. v. Bustamante, 562 S.W.2d 266, 267-68 (Tex. Civ. App.—San Antonio 1978, writ dism'd); Open Records Decision Nos. 605 at 2 (1992), 452 at 3 (1986), 362 at 2 (1983).

In this instance, the requestor has provided the department with the requisite pieces of information. Although you seek to withhold this information under section 552.103 of the Government Code, we note information that is specifically made public by statute may not be withheld from the public under any of the exceptions to public disclosure under the Act. See, e.g., Open Records Decision Nos. 544 (1990), 378 (1983), 161 (1977), 146 (1976). Accordingly, the department must release the submitted CR-3 accident report form in its entirety pursuant to section 550.065(c)(4) of the Transportation Code.

Next, we note the remaining information pertains to a completed investigation. Section 552.022(a)(1) of the Government Code provides for the required public disclosure of “a completed report, audit, evaluation, or investigation made of, for, or by a governmental body,” unless it is excepted by section 552.108 of the Government Code or made confidential under the Act or other law. Gov’t Code § 552.022(a)(1). Although you claim section 552.103 of the Government Code for this information, we note section 552.103 is a discretionary exception that protects a governmental body’s interests and may be waived. Dallas Area Rapid Transit v. Dallas Morning News, 4 S.W.3d 469, 475–76 (Tex. App.—Dallas 1999, no pet.) (governmental body may waive section 552.103); see also Open Records Decision No. 665 at 2 n.5 (2000) (discretionary exceptions generally). As such, section 552.103 does not make information confidential under the Act. Therefore, the department may not withhold any of the remaining information under section 552.103 of the Government Code. However, some of the remaining information is subject to sections 552.102 and 552.130 of the Government Code, which make information confidential under the Act.<sup>2</sup>

Section 552.102(a) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure “information in a personnel file, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.” Gov’t Code § 552.102(a). The Texas Supreme Court held section 552.102(a) excepts from disclosure the dates of birth of state employees in the payroll database of the Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts. Tex. Comptroller of Pub. Accounts v. Attorney Gen. of Tex., 354 S.W.3d 336 (Tex. 2010). We have marked the information that must be withheld under section 552.102(a) of the Government Code.

Section 552.130 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure information related to a motor vehicle operator’s or driver’s license or permit, or a motor vehicle title or registration, issued by an agency of this state or another state or country. Gov’t Code § 552.130(a)(1), (2). The department must withhold the motor vehicle record information we have marked under section 552.130 of the Government Code.

In summary, the department must release the submitted CR-3 accident report form pursuant to section 550.065(c)(4) of the Transportation Code. We have marked the information that must be withheld under section 552.102(a) of the Government Code. The department must withhold the motor vehicle record information we have marked under section 552.130 of the Government Code. The remaining information must be released.
