Dear Ms. Graham:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 456693.

The Mesquite Police Department (the "department") received a request for a specified police report. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Initially, we note you seek to withhold an FBI number. In Open Records Letter No. 2012-07334 (2012), this office issued a previous determination that authorizes the department to withhold FBI numbers under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 411.083 of the Government Code. See Open Records Decision No. 673 at 7-8 (2001) (listing elements of second type of previous determination under Gov't Code § 552.301(a)). Accordingly, the department must withhold the FBI number you have marked in accordance with the previous determination issued to the department in Open Records Letter No. 2012-07334.

- (3) a personal identification document issued by an agency of this state or another state or country or a local agency authorized to issue an identification document.

Gov't Code § 552.130(a). You seek to withhold a number under section 552.130 identified in the submitted documents as "SID" and "State ID Number." This number does not consist of information relating to a personal identification document issued by a Texas agency, or an agency of another state or country or a local agency authorized to issue an identification document for purposes of section 552.130, and it may not be withheld under section 552.130.

Section 552.147 of the Government Code provides "[t]he social security number of a living person is excepted from" required public disclosure under the Act. Id. § 552.147(a). Therefore, the department may withhold the social security number you have marked under section 552.147 of the Government Code.¹

In summary, the department must withhold the FBI number you have marked in accordance with the previous determination issued in Open Records Letter No. 2012-07334. The department may withhold the social security number you have marked under section 552.147 of the Government Code. The department must release the remaining information.
