OR2012-10640

Dear Ms. Fleming:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 458385.

The Texas Department of Criminal Justice (the "department") received a request for the names of all inmates who have been released through medically recommended intensive supervision for 2010 through the date of the request, as well as information concerning when they were released from prison and where they were assigned after their release. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses sections 12.003 and 21.012 of the Human Resources Code. Section 12.003 of the Human Resources Code provides, in relevant part:

(a) Except for purposes directly connected with the administration of the [Texas Health and Human Services Commission's (the "commission")]¹

assistance programs, it is an offense for a person to solicit, disclose, receive, or make use of, or to authorize, knowingly permit, participate in, or acquiesce in the use of the names of, or any information concerning, persons applying for or receiving assistance if the information is directly or indirectly derived from the records, papers, files, or communications of the [commission] or acquired by employees of the [commission] in the performance of their official duties.

Hum. Res. Code § 12.003(a) (footnote added); see also id. § 21.012 (requiring provision of safeguards that restrict use or disclosure of information concerning applicants for or recipients of assistance programs to purposes directly connected with administration of programs). The term “assistance” in sections 12.003 and 21.012 includes “all forms of assistance and services for needy persons authorized by Subtitle C” of title 2 of the Human Resources Code. Id. § 11.001(4); see also id. § 31.001 et seq. (Assistance Programs). In Open Records Decision No. 584 (1991), this office concluded that “[t]he inclusion of the words ‘or any information’ juxtaposed with the prohibition on disclosure of the names of the [commission]’s clients clearly expresses a legislative intent to encompass the broadest range of individual client information, and not merely the clients’ names and addresses.” Open Records Decision No. 584 at 3 (1991). Consequently, it is the specific information pertaining to individual clients, and not merely the clients’ identities, that is made confidential under section 12.003. See also 42 U.S.C. § 1396a(a)(7) (state plan for medical assistance must provide safeguards that restrict use or disclosure of information concerning applicants and recipients to purposes directly connected with administration of plan); 42 C.F.R. §§ 431.300 et seq.; Hum. Res. Code § 21.012(a); Open Records Decision No. 166 (1977).

You state the submitted information identifies and relates to recipients of, and applicants for, benefits from Medicaid, an assistance program administered by the commission. We understand the submitted information was directly or indirectly derived from the records of the commission. You state and we agree that the release of this information in this instance would not be for purposes directly connected with the administration of Medicaid. Accordingly, we find the department must withhold the submitted information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 12.003 of the Human Resources Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
