

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

July 16, 2012

Mr. Mark G. Mann
Assistant City Attorney
City of Garland
P.O. Box 469002
Garland, Texas 75046

OR2012-10990

Dear Mr. Mann:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 463468 (GCA12-0472).

The City of Garland (the "city") received a request for information involving three named individuals, a specific address, and a specified date. You state some of the requested information was previously requested by and released to this same requestor. See Gov't Code § 552.232 (prescribing procedures for response to repetitious or redundant request for information). You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the information you submitted.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Id. § 552.101. This exception encompasses information other statutes make confidential. You claim section 552.101 in conjunction with section 773.091 of the Health and Safety Code, which is applicable to records of the provision of emergency medical services ("EMS"). Section 773.091 provides in part:

(b) Records of the identity, evaluation or treatment of a patient by emergency medical services personnel or by a physician providing medical supervision that are created by the emergency medical services personnel or physician or maintained by an emergency medical services provider are confidential and privileged and may not be disclosed except as provided by this chapter.

(c) Any person who receives information from confidential communications or records as described by this chapter, other than a person listed in

Section 773.092 who is acting on the survivor's behalf, may not disclose the information except to the extent that disclosure is consistent with the authorized purposes for which the information was obtained.

Health & Safety Code § 773.091(b)-(c). Section 773.091 further provides that [t]he privilege of confidentiality under this section does not extend to information regarding the presence, nature of injury or illness, age, sex, occupation, and city of residence of a patient who is receiving emergency medical services.

Id. § 773.091(g). We note information made confidential by section 773.091 may be released to any person who bears a written consent of the patient or other persons authorized to act on the patient's behalf. See id. §§ 773.092(e)(4) (exceptions to confidentiality), .093 (consent for release); Open Records Decision No. 632 (1995). You state the submitted information is maintained by an EMS provider and pertains to the provision of emergency medical services. Based on your representations and our review, we find the information at issue consists of EMS records that are confidential under section 773.091. We therefore conclude the submitted information must be withheld under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 773.091 of the Health and Safety Code, except as specified by section 773.091(g), unless the city receives consent for release of the information that complies with sections 773.092 and 773.093 of the Health and Safety Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.oag.state.tx.us/open/index_orl.php, or call the Office of the Attorney General's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Act must be directed to the Cost Rules Administrator of the Office of the Attorney General, toll free, at (888) 672-6787.

Sincerely,
