

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

July 26, 2012

Sheriff Bill Wansley
Wood County Sheriff's Department
P.O. Box 307
Quitman, Texas 75783

OR2012-11651

Dear Sheriff Wansley:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 460243.

The Wood County Sheriff's Department (the "department") received a request for the personnel file of a named former deputy. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101, 552.102, 552.103, 552.117, and 552.130 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.103 of the Government Code states in relevant part:

(a) Information is excepted from [required public disclosure] if it is information relating to litigation of a civil or criminal nature to which the state or a political subdivision is or may be a party or to which an officer or employee of the state or a political subdivision, as a consequence of the person's office or employment, is or may be a party.

(c) Information relating to litigation involving a governmental body or an officer or employee of a governmental body is excepted from disclosure under Subsection (a) only if the litigation is pending or reasonably anticipated on the date that the requestor applies to the officer for public information for access to or duplication of the information.

Gov't Code § 552.103(a), (c). The governmental body has the burden of providing relevant facts and documents to show that the section 552.103(a) exception is applicable in a particular situation. The test for meeting this burden is a showing that (1) litigation is pending or reasonably anticipated on the date the governmental body received the request for information, and (2) the information at issue is related to that litigation. Univ. of Tex. Law Sch. v. Tex. Legal Found., 958 S.W.2d 479, 481 (Tex. App.—Austin 1997, no pet.); Heard v. Houston Post Co., 684 S.W.2d 210, 212 (Tex. App.—Houston [1st Dist.] 1984, writ ref'd n.r.e.); Open Records Decision No. 551 at 4 (1990). The governmental body must meet both prongs of this test for information to be excepted under section 552.103(a). See ORD 551 at 4.

The question of whether litigation is reasonably anticipated must be determined on a case-by-case basis. See Open Records Decision No. 452 at 4 (1986). To demonstrate litigation is reasonably anticipated, the governmental body must furnish concrete evidence litigation involving a specific matter is realistically contemplated and is more than mere conjecture. Id. This office has stated a pending Equal Employment Opportunity Commission ("EEOC") complaint indicates litigation is reasonably anticipated. Open Records Decision Nos. 386 at 2 (1983), 336 at 1 (1982).

You state, and provide documentation showing, the named former deputy filed a claim of discrimination with the EEOC. Although the submitted documents reveal the EEOC had concluded its investigation and issued a right-to-sue letter prior to the department's receipt of the request for information, we note the 90-day period in which the complainant has a right to sue had not expired when the department received the instant request for information. Thus, we agree the department reasonably anticipated litigation on the date it received the present request for information. You also argue the submitted information is related to the anticipated litigation because it pertains to the named former deputy's employment. Upon review, we agree the submitted information is related to the anticipated litigation for purposes of section 552.103. Therefore, section 552.103 of the Government Code is generally applicable to the submitted information.

We note, however, that the purpose of section 552.103 is to enable a governmental body to protect its position in litigation by forcing parties seeking information relating to that litigation to obtain it through discovery procedures. See ORD 551 at 4-5. Therefore, if the opposing party has seen or had access to information relating to anticipated litigation through discovery or otherwise, there is no interest in withholding such information from public disclosure under section 552.103. See Open Records Decision Nos. 349 (1982), 320 (1982). In this instance, the opposing party in the anticipated litigation has already seen or had access to some of the information at issue. We note the individual's access to some of this information was only in the usual scope of his employment with the department. Such information is not considered to have been obtained by the opposing party to the litigation and, thus, may be withheld under section 552.103. However, the information we have marked has been seen by the opposing party outside of his scope of employment with the department and may not be withheld from the requestor under section 552.103. The department may withhold the remaining information at issue under section 552.103.<sup>1</sup> We note the applicability of section 552.103 ends once the related litigation concludes or is no longer reasonably anticipated. See Attorney General Opinion MW-575 (1982); Open Records Decision No. 350 (1982).

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure “information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision.” Gov’t Code § 552.101. This section encompasses information protected by other statutes, such as chapter 560 of the Government Code, which provides that “[a] biometric identifier in the possession of a governmental body is exempt from disclosure [the Act].” See id. §§ 560.001 (defining “biometric identifier” to include fingerprints), .002 (prescribing manner in which biometric identifiers must be maintained and circumstances in which they can be released), .003 (biometric identifiers in possession of governmental body exempt from disclosure under the Act). Upon review, we have marked fingerprints in the remaining information. You do not inform us, and the submitted information does not indicate, section 560.002 permits the disclosure of the submitted fingerprint information in this instance. Therefore, the department must withhold the fingerprints we have marked under section 552.101 in conjunction with section 560.003 of the Government Code.

Section 552.102(a) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure “information in a personnel file, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.” Id. § 552.102(a). The Texas Supreme Court has considered the applicability of section 552.102, and has held section 552.102(a) excepts from disclosure the dates of birth of state employees in the payroll database of the Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts. Tex. Comptroller of Pub. Accounts v. Attorney Gen. of Tex., 354 S.W.3d 336, 348 (Tex. 2010). Upon review, we find the department must withhold the information we have marked under section 552.102(a) of the Government Code. However, we find no portion of the remaining information is excepted under section 552.102(a). Accordingly, the department may not withhold any of this information under section 552.102(a) of the Government Code.

Section 552.117(a)(2) of the Government Code excepts from public disclosure the current and former home addresses and telephone numbers, emergency contact information, social security number, and family member information of a peace officer, regardless of whether the peace officer made an election under section 552.024 or section 552.1175 of the Government Code to keep such information confidential. Gov’t Code § 552.117(a)(2).

Section 552.117(a)(2) applies to peace officers as defined by article 2.12 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. In this instance, the remaining information concerns an individual who is no longer employed by the department. Accordingly, if this individual is currently a licensed peace officer, the department must withhold the information we have marked under section 552.117(a)(2) of the Government Code.

If the individual concerned is not currently a licensed peace officer, the marked information may be protected by section 552.117(a)(1) of the Government Code. Section 552.117(a)(1) excepts from disclosure the home addresses and telephone numbers, emergency contact information, social security numbers, and family member information of current or former employees of a governmental body who request that this information be kept confidential under section 552.024 of the Government Code. Id. § 552.117(a)(1). Whether a particular piece of information is protected by section 552.117(a)(1) must be determined at the time the request for it is made. See Open Records Decision No. 530 at 5 (1989). Therefore, a governmental body must withhold information under section 552.117(a)(1) on behalf of a current or former employee only if the individual made a request for confidentiality under section 552.024 prior to the date on which the request for this information was made. Accordingly, if the individual whose information is at issue timely requested confidentiality pursuant to section 552.024, the information we have marked under section 552.117 must be withheld under section 552.117(a)(1).<sup>2</sup> The department may not withhold the marked information under section 552.117(a)(1) if the individual did not make a timely election to keep the information confidential.

Section 552.130 of the Government Code provides information relating to a motor vehicle operator's or driver's license or permit, a motor vehicle title or registration, or a personal identification document issued by an agency of Texas or another state or country is excepted from public release. Gov't Code § 552.130(a). We find the department must withhold the motor vehicle record information we have marked under section 552.130 of the Government Code.

We note a portion of the remaining information is subject to section 552.137 of the Government Code.<sup>3</sup> Section 552.137 excepts from disclosure "an e-mail address of a member of the public that is provided for the purpose of communicating electronically with a governmental body," unless the member of the public consents to its release or the e-mail address is of a type specifically excluded by subsection (c). See id. § 552.137(a)-(c). The

<sup>2</sup>In the event the former deputy's social security number is not excepted from disclosure under section 552.117 of the Government Code, we note section 552.147(b) of the Government Code authorizes a governmental body to redact a living person's social security number from public release without the necessity of requesting a decision from this office under the Act. Gov't Code § 552.147(b).

<sup>3</sup>The Office of the Attorney General will raise a mandatory exception on behalf of a governmental body, but ordinarily will not raise other exceptions. See Open Records Decision Nos. 481 (1987), 480 (1987), 470 (1987).

e-mail address at issue is not a type specifically excluded by section 552.137(c). Accordingly, the department must withhold the e-mail address we have marked under section 552.137 of the Government Code, unless the owner of the e-mail address has affirmatively consented to its disclosure.

In summary, with the exception of the information we have marked, the department may withhold the submitted information under section 552.103 of the Government Code. The department must withhold the fingerprints we have marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 560.003 of the Government Code. The department must withhold the information we have marked under section 552.102(a) of the Government Code. If the individual at issue is currently a licensed peace officer, the department must withhold the information we have marked under section 552.117(a)(2) of the Government Code. If the individual at issue is not currently a licensed peace officer but timely requested confidentiality pursuant to section 552.024 of the Government Code, the department must withhold the information we have marked under section 552.117(a)(1) of the Government Code. The department must withhold the information we have marked under section 552.130 of the Government Code. The department must withhold the e-mail address we have marked under section 552.137 of the Government Code, unless the owner of the e-mail address has affirmatively consented to its disclosure. The department must release the remaining information.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
