

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

October 11, 2012

Ms. Kelley Messer
Assistant City Attorney
City of Abilene
P.O. Box 60
Abilene, Texas 79604-0060

OR2012-13559A

Dear Ms. Messer:

This office issued Open Records Letter No. 2012-13559 on August 28, 2012. In that ruling, based upon your representation that the City of Abilene (the "city") received the request for information on June 5, 2012, we found the city failed to comply with the procedural requirements mandated by section 552.301 of the Government Code. See Gov't Code §§ 552.301(b), 302. You now inform us the request actually was received by the city on June 8, 2012, and the previous representation as to June 5 was a clerical error. Because your request for a ruling was therefore timely for purposes of section 552.301(b), and the required information required by section 552.301(e) was also timely submitted to this office, we have determined the prior ruling should be corrected. See id. §§ 552.306, 552.352. Consequently, this decision is a substitute for Open Records Letter No. 2012-13559 and serves as the correct ruling. See generally Gov't Code § 552.011 (Office of Attorney General may issue decision to maintain uniformity in application, operation, and interpretation of Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code). This ruling was assigned ID# 471117.

The City of Abilene and the Abilene Police Department (collectively, the "city") received a request for information related to a specified automobile accident. You state the city has released some of the requested information. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.108 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure “[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime . . . if . . . release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime[.]” Gov’t Code § 552.108(a)(1). A governmental body must reasonably explain how and why section 552.108 is applicable to the information at issue. See id. § 552.301(e)(1)(A); Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977).

You state the submitted information is related to a pending criminal investigation and release would interfere with the pending investigation. Based on your representations, we find release of the submitted information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. See Houston Chronicle Publ’g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975) (court delineates law enforcement interests present in active cases), writ ref’d n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976).

However, section 552.108 does not except from disclosure “basic information about an arrested person, an arrest, or a crime.” Id. § 552.108(c). Section 552.108(c) refers to the basic front-page offense and arrest information held to be public in Houston Chronicle. See 531 S.W.2d at 186-88; Open Records Decision No. 127 at 3-4 (1976) (summarizing types of information deemed public by Houston Chronicle). The city must release basic information, even if the information does not literally appear on the front page of an offense or arrest report. Except for basic information, which must be released, the city may withhold the submitted information under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.oag.state.tx.us/open/index_orl.php, or call the Office of the Attorney General’s Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Act must be directed to the Cost Rules Administrator of the Office of the Attorney General, toll free, at (888) 672-6787.

Sincerely,

Cindy Nettles
