

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

September 7, 2012

Ms. Ylise Janssen
Senior School Law Attorney
Office of the General Counsel
Austin Independent School District
1111 West Sixth Street
Austin, Texas 78703

OR2012-14206

Dear Ms. Janssen:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 464337.

The Austin Independent School District (the "district") received a request for two specified incident reports. You state one of the reports has been released. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the claimed exceptions and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This section encompasses information protected by other statutes. Section 58.003 of the Family Code generally provides that a court may seal certain juvenile records. See Fam. Code § 58.003(a). Although you assert that release of the information at issue "would potentially violate the juvenile's right to have these documents sealed," you do not inform us that the submitted information has been ordered sealed. Therefore, the district may not withhold the submitted information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 58.003 of the Family Code.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code also encompasses section 58.007 of the Family Code, which provides in relevant part:

(c) Except as provided by Subsection (d), law enforcement records and files concerning a child and information stored, by electronic means or otherwise, concerning the child from which a record or file could be generated may not be disclosed to the public and shall be:

(1) if maintained on paper or microfilm, kept separate from adult files and records;

(2) if maintained electronically in the same computer system as records or files relating to adults, be accessible under controls that are separate and distinct from controls to access electronic data concerning adults; and

(3) maintained on a local basis only and not sent to a central state or federal depository, except as provided by Subchapters B, D, and E.

(e) Law enforcement records and files concerning a child may be inspected or copied by a juvenile justice agency as that term is defined by Section 58.101, a criminal justice agency as that term is defined by Section 411.082, Government Code, the child, and the child's parent or guardian.

(j) Before a child or a child's parent or guardian may inspect or copy a record or file concerning the child under Subsection (e), the custodian of the record or file shall redact:

(1) any personally identifiable information about a juvenile suspect, offender, victim, or witness who is not the child; and

(2) any information that is excepted from required disclosure under [the Act], or other law.

Fam. Code § 58.007(c), (e), (j). Juvenile law enforcement records relating to conduct indicating a need for supervision that occurred on or after September 1, 1997 are confidential under section 58.007(c). See id. § 51.03(b) (defining "conduct indicating a need for supervision”). For purposes of section 58.007(c), “child” means a person who is ten years of age or older and under seventeen years of age at the time of the incident. See id. § 51.02(2). We find the submitted information consists of law enforcement records that involve juvenile conduct indicating a need for supervision that occurred after September 1, 1997. Accordingly, the submitted information is generally subject to section 58.007(c).

However, as you acknowledge, the requestor is the parent of a juvenile offender listed in the report at issue. Therefore, this requestor has a right to inspect information concerning his child under section 58.007(e). Id. § 58.007(e). Accordingly, the district may not withhold the submitted information from this requestor under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 58.007(c) of the Family Code. However, personally identifiable information concerning any juvenile suspect, offender, victim, or witness who is not a child of the requestor must be redacted pursuant to section 58.007(j)(1) of the Family Code. See id. § 58.007(j)(1). Section 58.007(j)(2) further provides that information subject to any other exception to disclosure under the Act or other law must be redacted before a governmental body releases information pursuant to section 58.007(e). See id. § 58.007(j)(2). Thus, we will consider your remaining argument against disclosure.

Section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure “[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime . . . if . . . release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime[.]” Gov’t Code § 552.108(a)(1). A governmental body must reasonably explain how release of the information at issue would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. See id. § 552.301(e)(1)(A) (governmental body must provide comments explaining why exceptions raised should apply to information requested); see also Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977). You state, and provide a representation from the district’s police department demonstrating, the submitted information pertains to a pending criminal investigation. Based on these representations and our review of the information, we conclude section 552.108(a)(1) is generally applicable to the submitted information. See Houston Chronicle Publ’g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975) (court describes law enforcement interests that are present in active cases), writ ref’d per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976). We note, however, that the submitted information includes citations. Because copies of the citations were provided to the individuals who were cited, we find that release of the citations will not interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. See Gov’t Code § 552.108(a)(1). Therefore, the district may not withhold the citations under section 552.108(a)(1).

We note section 552.108 also does not except from disclosure “basic information about an arrested person, an arrest, or a crime.” Id. § 552.108(c). Section 552.108(c) refers to the basic “front-page” information held to be public in Houston Chronicle. See 531 S.W.2d at 186-88. Basic information must be released, even if it does not literally appear on the front page of the report. See Open Records Decision No. 127 (1976) (summarizing types of information deemed public by Houston Chronicle). Therefore, with the exception of basic information and the citations, the district may withhold the submitted information under section 552.108(a)(1). In releasing the basic information and citations, the district must redact personally identifiable information concerning any juvenile suspect, offender, victim, or witness who is not a child of the requestor, which we have marked, pursuant to section 58.007(j)(1) of the Family Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.oag.state.tx.us/open/index_orl.php, or call the Office of the Attorney General's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Act must be directed to the Cost Rules Administrator of the Office of the Attorney General, toll free at (888) 672-6787.
