Assistant City Attorney

OR2012-14758

Dear Ms. Middlebrooks:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 465113 (PIR: 2012-07655).

The Dallas Police Department (the "department") received a request for a specified police report. You claim some of the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101, 552.108, and 552.130 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted representative sample of information.¹

Section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime . . . if . . . release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime[.]" Gov't Code § 552.108(a)(1). A governmental body must reasonably explain how and why section 552.108 is applicable to the information at issue. See id. § 552.301(e)(1)(A); Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977). You have marked the information the department seeks to withhold under section 552.108. You state ¹We assume that the "representative sample" of records submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). This open records letter does not reach, and therefore does not authorize the withholding of, any other requested records to the extent that those records contain substantially different types of information than that submitted to this office.

the release of the marked information would interfere with a pending criminal investigation. Based on your representation, we conclude the department may withhold the marked information under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.² See Houston Chronicle Publ'g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975) (court delineates law enforcement interests that are present in active cases), writ ref'd n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976).

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure “information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision[.]” Gov’t Code § 552.101. This exception encompasses information other statutes make confidential. You also argue the marked dates of birth are excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 in conjunction with section 521.051 of the Business and Commerce Code.³ Section 521.051(a) provides that [a] person may not obtain, possess, transfer, or use personal identifying information of another person without the other person’s consent, and with intent to obtain a good, a service, insurance, an extension of credit, or any other thing of value in the other person’s name.

Bus. & Comm. Code § 521.051(a) (formerly Bus. & Comm. Code § 48.101(a)). “Personal identifying information” is defined as “information that alone or in conjunction with other information identifies an individual” and includes an individual’s date of birth. Id. § 521.002(a)(1)(A). You assert the marked dates of birth meet the definition of “personal identifying information” under section 521.002(a)(1) of the Business and Commerce Code. See id. § 521.002(a)(1). We note section 521.051(a) of the Business and Commerce Code does not prohibit the transfer of personal identifying information of another person unless the transfer is made with the intent to obtain a good, a service, insurance, an extension of credit, or any other thing of value in the other person’s name without that person’s consent. See id. § 521.051(a). In this instance, the department’s release of the information at issue would be for the purpose of complying with the Act and not “with intent to obtain a good, a service, insurance, an extension of credit, or any other thing of value[.]” See id. Therefore, section 521.051(a) does not prohibit the department from transferring the information at issue. See id. We therefore conclude the department may not withhold any of the information at issue under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 521.051 of the Business and Commerce Code.

²As we are able to make this determination, we need not address your remaining argument against disclosure of the marked information.

³Although you also cite to section 521.002 of the Texas Business and Commerce Code, that section defines terms for purposes of chapter 521 of the Business and Commerce Code and does not make information confidential.

You also claim section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy, which protects information that is highly intimate or embarrassing, such that its release would be highly objectionable to a person of ordinary sensibilities, and of no legitimate public interest. See Indus. Found. v. Tex. Indus. Accident Bd., 540 S.W.2d 668, 685 (Tex. 1976). To demonstrate the applicability of common-law privacy, both elements of the test must be established. Id. at 681-82. You seek to withhold the dates of birth of members of the public on this basis. We note the dates of birth of living members of the public are not protected by common-law privacy under section 552.101. See Open Records Decision No. 455 at 7 (1987) (home addresses, telephone numbers, and dates of birth not private). We therefore conclude the department may not withhold any of the dates of birth at issue under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy.

Section 552.130 of the Government Code provides information relating to a motor vehicle title or registration issued by an agency of Texas or another state or country is excepted from public release. Gov't Code § 552.130(a)(2). We agree the department must withhold the motor vehicle information you have marked under section 552.130 of the Government Code.

In summary, the department may withhold the information you have marked under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code. The department must withhold the motor vehicle information you have marked under section 552.130 of the Government Code. The remaining information must be released.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
