

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

November 30, 2012

Ms. Michelle T. Rangel
Assistant County Attorney
Fort Bend County
301 Jackson Street, Suite 728
Richmond, Texas 77469

OR2012-19255

Dear Ms. Rangel:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 472608.

The Fort Bend County Sheriff's Office (the "sheriff's office") received a request for a specified police report. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This section encompasses other laws that make information confidential, such as section 48.101 of the Human Resources Code, which provides in relevant part:

(a) The following information is confidential and not subject to disclosure under [the Act]:

- (1) a report of abuse, neglect, or exploitation made under this chapter;
- (2) the identity of the person making the report; and
- (3) except as provided by this section, all files, reports, records, communications, and working papers used or developed in an investigation made under this chapter or in providing services as a result of an investigation.

(b) Confidential information may be disclosed only for a purpose consistent with this chapter and as provided by [the Texas Department of Family and Protective Services (the "DFPS")] or investigating state agency rule and applicable federal law.

Hum. Res. Code § 48.101(a)-(b). Section 48.051 of the Human Resources Code provides "a person having cause to believe that an elderly or disabled person is in the state of abuse, neglect, or exploitation" shall report certain prescribed information to the DFPS or another appropriate state agency.¹ See id. § 48.051(a). The only entities authorized to conduct an investigation under chapter 48 of the Human Resources Code are DFPS and certain other state agencies, depending on the circumstances surrounding the incident. See id. §§ 48.151, .152, .252, .301. Thus, reports made to a police department or sheriff's office generally are not subject to section 48.101. You contend the submitted information is confidential under section 48.101. We note, however, the submitted report reflects it was created by the sheriff's office. Although you state the sheriff's office referred the matter to Adult Protective Services ("APS") of the DFPS, you have not demonstrated that the information at issue was used or developed in an investigation by APS under chapter 48 of the Human Resources Code. See id. § 48.101(a)(3). Thus, you have failed to demonstrate the submitted information pertains to an investigation conducted by an entity authorized to conduct such an investigation under chapter 48. Consequently, the sheriff's office may not withhold the submitted information under section 552.101 in conjunction with section 48.101.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code also encompasses article 63.017 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, which provides the following:

Clearinghouse records that relate to the investigation by a law enforcement agency of a missing child, a missing person, or an unidentified body and records or notations that the clearinghouse maintains for internal use in matters relating to missing children, missing persons, or unidentified bodies are confidential.

Crim. Proc. Code art. 63.017. You contend the submitted information is confidential under article 63.017 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. For purposes of article 63.017, "clearinghouse" is defined as the missing children and missing persons information clearinghouse, which is established within the Texas Department of Public Safety. Id. arts. 63.001(7), 63.002(a). The information at issue consists of an incident report that was created by the sheriff's office. The incident report is not a clearinghouse record for purposes of article 63.017. Therefore, the sheriff's office may not withhold the submitted information under section 552.101 in conjunction with article 63.017.

See Act of June 2, 2003, 78th Leg., R.S., ch. 198, § 1.27, 2003 Tex. Gen. Laws 611, 641 ("A reference in law to the Department of Protective and Regulatory Service means the Department of Family and Protective Services.").

Section 552.108(a)(2) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure information concerning an investigation that concluded in a result other than conviction or deferred adjudication. Gov't Code § 552.108(a)(2). A governmental body claiming section 552.108(a)(2) must demonstrate the requested information relates to a criminal investigation that has concluded in a final result other than a conviction or deferred adjudication. See id. § 552.301(e)(1)(A) (governmental body must provide comments explaining why exceptions raised should apply to information requested). You state the submitted information relates to a closed case that concluded in a result other than conviction or deferred adjudication. Accordingly, we agree section 552.108(a)(2) is applicable to the submitted information.

We note, however, section 552.108 does not except from disclosure basic information about an arrested person, an arrest, or a crime. Id. § 552.108(c). Basic information refers to the information held to be public in See Houston Chronicle Publishing Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975), writ ref'd n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976). See Open Records Decision No. 127 (1976) (summarizing types of information deemed public by Houston Chronicle). Thus, with the exception of the basic information, the sheriff's office may withhold the submitted information under section 552.108(a)(2) of the Government Code.²

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
