OR2012-19370

Dear Ms. Henry:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 473528.

The Plano Police Department (the "department") received a request for information pertaining to the requestor during a specified time period. You state some information has been released. You claim some of the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the claimed exception and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This section encompasses information protected by other statutes, such as section 58.007 of the Family Code, which provides in pertinent part as follows:

(c) Except as provided by Subsection (d), law enforcement records and files concerning a child and information stored, by electronic means or otherwise, concerning the child from which a record or file could be generated may not be disclosed to the public and shall be:

(1) if maintained on paper or microfilm, kept separate from adult files and records;

(2) if maintained electronically in the same computer system as records or files relating to adults, be accessible under controls that are separate and distinct from controls to access electronic data concerning adults; and

(3) maintained on a local basis only and not sent to a central state or federal depository, except as provided by Subchapters B, D, and E.

(e) Law enforcement records and files concerning a child may be inspected or copied by a juvenile justice agency as that term is defined by Section 58.101, a criminal justice agency as that term is defined by Section 411.082, Government Code, the child, and the child's parent or guardian.

(j) Before a child or a child's parent or guardian may inspect or copy a record or file concerning the child under Subsection (e), the custodian of the record or file shall redact:

(1) any personally identifiable information about a juvenile suspect, offender, victim, or witness who is not the child[.]

Fam. Code § 58.007(c), (e), (j)(1). Juvenile law enforcement records relating to conduct indicating a need for supervision that occurred on or after September 1, 1997 are confidential under section 58.007(c). See id. § 51.03 (defining "conduct indicating a need for supervision"). For purposes of section 58.007(c), child means a person who is ten years of age or older and under seventeen years of age. See id. § 51.02(2). We find the submitted information consists of law enforcement records that involve juvenile conduct indicating a need for supervision that occurred after September 1, 1997. Accordingly, the submitted information is generally subject to section 58.007(c).

However, in this instance, the requestor is the juvenile suspect or offender listed in the reports at issue. Section 58.007(e) allows the requestor access to his own juvenile law enforcement records. Id. § 58.007(e). Section 58.007(j)(1), however, provides that any personally identifiable information about a juvenile who is not the requestor must be redacted. Id. § 58.007(c). Thus, with the exception of the information we have marked for release, the department must withhold the information you have marked, and the additional information we have marked, under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 58.007(j)(1) of the Family Code. As you raise no additional exceptions to disclosure, the remaining information must be released to this requestor.<sup>1</sup>

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.oag.state.tx.us/open/index\_orl.php, or call the Office of the Attorney General's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Act must be directed to the Cost Rules Administrator of the Office of the Attorney General, toll free at (888) 672-6787.

Sincerely,

Misty Haberer Barham
Assistant Attorney General
Open Records Division

<sup>1</sup>As noted, the requestor in this instance has a special right of access under section 58.007(e) to the information being released. Accordingly, if the department should receive another request for this information from a different requestor, the department must again request an opinion from this office.
