

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

December 27, 2012

Mr. Matthew Cross
Assistant City Attorney
City of El Paso

El Paso, Texas 79901

OR2012-20769

Dear Mr. Cross:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 478933.

The El Paso Police Department (the "department") received a request for information related to a specified case number. You state some responsive information has been released to the requestor. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.108 and 552.130 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.108 of the Government Code excepts from public disclosure "[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime . . . if . . . release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime[.]" Gov't Code § 552.108 (a)(1). A governmental body that claims an exception to disclosure under section 552.108 must reasonably explain how and why this exception is applicable to the information at issue. See id. § 552.301(e)(1)(A); Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977).

We note the information at issue includes a statutory warning, form DIC-24, and a notice of suspension, form DIC-25. Because copies of those forms were provided to the person who is the subject of the warning and the notice, we find release of the statutory warning and notice of suspension will not interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. See Gov't Code § 552.108(a)(1). Therefore, the department may not withhold the statutory warning or notice of suspension under section 552.108 of the Government Code.

You state release of the remaining information would interfere with a pending criminal prosecution. Based on your representation, we find release of the remaining information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. See Houston Chronicle Publ'g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975) (court delineates law enforcement interests present in active cases), writ ref'd n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976).

We also note section 552.108 does not except from disclosure “basic information about an arrested person, an arrest, or a crime.” Id. § 552.108(c). Section 552.108(c) refers to the basic front-page offense and arrest information held to be public in Houston Chronicle. See 531 S.W.2d at 186-88; Open Records Decision No. 127 at 3-4 (1976) (summarizing types of information deemed public by Houston Chronicle). Except for basic information, the statutory warning, and the notice of suspension, the department may withhold the submitted information under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.

Lastly, we note the statutory warning and notice of suspension contain the arrested person's driver's license number. Section 552.130 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure information related to a motor vehicle operator's or driver's license or permit issued by an agency of this state or another state or country. See Gov't Code § 552.130(a)(1). The department must withhold the driver's license number we have marked in the statutory warning and the notice of suspension under section 552.130 of the Government Code.

In summary, except for the statutory warning, the notice of suspension, and basic information under section 552.108(c), the department may withhold the submitted information under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code. In releasing basic information, the statutory warning, and the notice of suspension, the department must withhold the marked driver's license number under section 552.130 of the Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
