OR2013-00716

Dear Ms. Graham:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 480998.

The Mesquite Police Department (the "department") received a request for information related to a burglary of a vehicle. You indicate an FBI number will be withheld pursuant to the previous determination issued to the department in Open Records Letter No. 2012-07334 (2012).<sup>1</sup> You state some of the requested information has been released. You claim other responsive information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101, 552.130, and 552.147 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the information you submitted.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This exception encompasses federal and state laws that make criminal history record information ("CHRI") obtained from the National Crime Information Center ("NCIC") and Texas Crime Information Center ("TCIC") confidential. CHRI means <sup>1</sup>Open Records Letter No. 2012-07334 authorizes the department to withhold FBI numbers under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 411.083 of the Government Code without requesting a decision under the Act when requests for such numbers are not made by individuals or entities who are authorized to obtain them under chapter 411 of the Government Code.

“information collected about a person by a criminal justice agency that consists of identifiable descriptions and notations of arrests, detentions, indictments, informations, and other formal criminal charges and their dispositions.” Id. § 411.082(2). Federal law governs the dissemination of CHRI obtained from the NCIC network. Federal regulations prohibit the release to the general public of CHRI maintained in state and local CHRI systems. See 28 C.F.R. § 20.21(c)(1) (“Use of criminal history record information disseminated to noncriminal justice agencies shall be limited to the purpose for which it was given.”) and (c)(2) (“No agency or individual shall confirm the existence or nonexistence of criminal history record information to any person or agency that would not be eligible to receive the information itself.”). The federal regulations allow each state to follow its own individual law with respect to CHRI it generates. See Open Records Decision No. 565 at 10-12 (1990); see generally Gov’t Code ch. 411 subch. F. Although sections 411.083(b)(1) and 411.089(a) of the Government Code authorize a criminal justice agency to obtain CHRI, a criminal justice agency may not release CHRI except to another criminal justice agency for a criminal justice purpose. See id. § 411.089(b). You state the information you have marked to be withheld under section 552.101 of the Government Code was obtained by the department from the NCIC and TCIC networks. Based on your representations and our review, we agree the marked information constitutes CHRI the department must withhold under section 552.101 in conjunction with federal law and subchapter F of chapter 411 of the Government Code.

Section 552.130 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure information related to a motor vehicle operator’s or driver’s license or permit or a motor vehicle title or registration issued by an agency of this state or another state or country. See id. § 552.130(a)(1)-(2). We conclude the department must withhold the driver’s license and motor vehicle information you have marked and the additional driver’s license and motor vehicle information we have marked under section 552.130 of the Government Code.

Section 552.147 of the Government Code states “[t]he social security number of a living person is excepted from” required public disclosure under the Act. Id. § 552.147(a). We agree the department may withhold the social security number you have marked under section 552.147 of the Government Code.

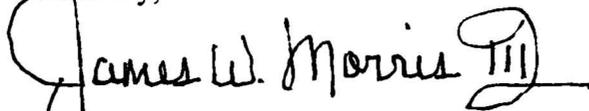

In summary, the department (1) must withhold the marked CHRI under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with federal law and subchapter F of chapter 411 of the Government Code; (2) must withhold the marked driver’s license and motor vehicle information under section 552.130 of the Government Code; and (3) may withhold the marked social security number under section 552.147 of the Government Code.

You also ask this office to issue a previous determination that would permit the department to withhold CHRI under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with federal law and subchapter F of chapter 411 of the Government Code without the necessity of requesting a decision under the Act. See Gov’t Code § 552.301(a); Open Records
