OR2013-02336

Dear Ms. Folsom:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 482513 (GC No. 20240).

The Houston Emergency Center (the "HEC") received a request for 911 records and dispatch transcripts involving a specified address during a specific time period. You claim the requested information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the information you submitted.

Section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime . . . if . . . release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime[.]" Gov't Code § 552.108(a)(1). A governmental body must reasonably explain how and why section 552.108 is applicable to the information at issue. See id. § 552.301(e)(1)(A); Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977). Section 552.108 may be invoked by the proper custodian of information relating to a pending investigation or prosecution of criminal conduct. See Open Records Decision No. 474 at 4-5 (1987). Where a non-law enforcement agency has custody of information that would otherwise qualify for exception under section 552.108 as information relating to the pending case of a law enforcement agency, the custodian of the records may withhold the information if it provides this office with a demonstration that the information relates to the pending case and a representation from the law enforcement agency that it wishes to have the information withheld.

You state the Houston Police Department (the "department") has advised the HEC the information submitted as Exhibits 2 and 2A is related to a pending criminal prosecution. We understand the department objects to disclosure of the information because its release would interfere with the prosecution. Based on your representations, we conclude the HEC may withhold Exhibits 2 and 2A on behalf of the department under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code. See Houston Chronicle Publ'g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975) (court delineates law enforcement interests present in active cases), writ ref'd n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976).

Section 552.108(a)(2) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime . . . if . . . it is information that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime only in relation to an investigation that did not result in conviction or deferred adjudication." Gov't Code § 552.108(a)(2). A governmental body that claims section 552.108(a)(2) must demonstrate the information at issue is related to a criminal investigation that concluded in a final result other than a conviction or a deferred adjudication. Although section 552.108, by its terms, applies only to a law enforcement agency or a prosecutor, this office has concluded section 552.108 may be invoked by any proper custodian of information related to the underlying incident. See ORD 474. Where a non-law enforcement agency has custody of information related to a concluded criminal case of a law enforcement agency, the custodian of the records may withhold the information if it provides this office with a demonstration that the information is related to a criminal case that has reached a conclusion other than a conviction or deferred adjudication and a representation from a law enforcement entity that it wishes to have the information withheld.

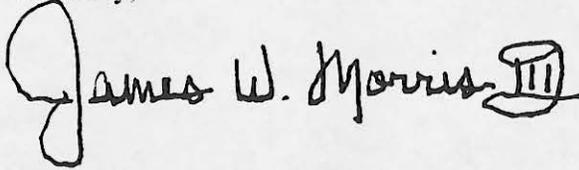

You state the department has informed the HEC the information submitted as Exhibit 4 is related to a concluded criminal investigation that did not result in a conviction or a deferred adjudication. We understand the department also wishes to have Exhibit 4 withheld. Based on your representations, we conclude the HEC may withhold Exhibit 4 on behalf of the department under section 552.108(a)(2) of the Government Code.

In summary, the HEC may withhold (1) Exhibits 2 and 2A on behalf of the department under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code and (2) Exhibit 4 on behalf of the department under section 552.108(a)(2) of the Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
